For Its Many Newsboys

Review To Play 'Santa'

The above symbolic scene will be re-enacted many times Saturday as The Review again plays Santa to the newsboys who deliver its papers.

As is the custom each Christmas, some 200 youngsters will receive their papers free tomorrow. The 5 cents they collect from each Saturday paper will go into their own pockets.

Among those benefitting will be the newsboys above who are accepting a ribbon-bedecked bundle from Santa in the Review mailing room.

From the left are David Palmer, 310 Needham St.; Donald Steed, 942 St. George St., accepting the papers; James Smith, 1410 Etruria St., and Terry Burgess, 1036 St. George St., next to Santa.

Newsboys play a most important part in the everyday operation of The Review. We hope you will join with us in helping to make their Christmas a merrier one by answering the door when they knock Saturday.

West Okays First Steps For Air Warning System

PARIS (AP)—The Western Allies have authorized first steps toward an integrated system to warn of an air attack on Western Europe but have left for Presidents Eisenhower and De Gaulle the major question of whether NATO could order French planes into action against the attack.

This is the chief result of the annual policy review by foreign, defense and finance ministers of the 15 members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The three-day meeting ended here Thursday with France agreeing to a formula for establishing the warning system but still refusing to put any of its air force under NATO's unified military command.

The United States wants forces of all NATO nations unified under the alliance's central command to defend Western Europe. In the face of De Gaulle's opposition, the Americans urged that at least an integrated air defense be started. But the French would not even agree to that.

Instead, the ministers left it up to Eisenhower—as well as British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer—to see if they could make some headway with the stubborn French President during the Western summit conference this weekend.

It seemed unlikely, however, that any immediate solution would be forthcoming.

The United States and all the other NATO allies except France hope the air warning system will be a start toward military unification.

Informants said that as far as the ministers' action went, it satisfied Gen. Lauris Norstad, Supreme Allied Commander in Europe. He feels the warning system is a pressing need.

Now he and his command can work out air defense strategy assuming there will someday be unity of command. They can even plan and build radar installations and communication centers in the NATO countries on the continent, including France.

The NATO ministers did not mention military integration in their final communique, which promised to "make a determined effort" to guarantee the necessary strength of the alliance.

Paul-Henri Spaak, NATO's general secretary, told skeptical newsmen that despite the routine wording of the communique, "I'm satisfied, very satisfied, despite your cynical smiles."

"I do not say that everyone is in agreement. But on the day that all technical questions have been answered, I assure you that we will find it easier to agree quickly."

Crucible Cites Points In Offer Union Refused

A contract termination date running three months beyond any agreement signed by Big Steel producers was one of the highlights of a proposal made by Crucible Steel Co. of America Wednesday to the unions representing its employees, the firm said today in explaining the offer which the United Steelworkers committees rejected.

The company said the terms of its offer were similar to those in the industry on the economic side, but the contract language was tailored to meet Crucible's needs as a specialty steel producer.

Committees representing three USW locals of the Crucible's Midland Works turned down the offer. The negotiations are scheduled to be explained at a special union meeting Monday at 7:30 p. m. in Midland Steelworkers Hall.

out these rights we are being unfairly penalized. We have asked for no change in working practices unless the industry and the United Steelworkers solve this problem so that reasonable steps may be taken to improve efficiency and eliminate waste. In that event, we would expect to have a similar right.

"We also proposed for our mutual advantage that this contract run three months beyond the expiration of the basic steel contract. As a smaller tonnage producer, we must, for practical reasons, wait until Big Steel and the USW reach agreement on what, if any, economic benefits will be granted and then we sign at the same terms.

"As a specialty producer, we stand to lose much more than is obvious in a long strike because many of our competitors continue to work during a steel strike.

"A later termination date would be of great advantage to both the employees and the company. The employees would not lose work and the company would not lose business.

"We regret that the union has rejected this offer because we feel it to be a very good one; one that would be of benefit to all our employees."

Balmy Weather Wanes; Snow Flurries Are Due

Kiss those balmy temperatures goodbye — there are snow flurries in the offing.

The Ohio weatherman said the mercury will climb to a fairly mild 40 to 45 today then plunge tonight with a low of 30 to 35 expected.

Occasional light rain or drizzle forecast for today was expected to turn to snow flurries when the temperature dips tonight.

Saturday will be colder, too. But it's not unexpected — winter is due officially Tuesday at 9:35 a. m.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—King Phumiphon Aduldet of Thailand and Queen Sirikit arrived by plane today for a four-day state visit to President Ngo Dinh Diem. The royal couple is scheduled to visit the United States next June.

Council Waits Swan Song

City Council's last regular meeting of the year Monday will be a forerunner to one of the most sweeping changes in history for the municipal government, which will see an almost solidly Republican official family bow out Dec. 31 to be succeeded by an equally solid Democratic group of administrators Jan. 1.

The end of the biennium also will mean changes in some appointive posts in addition to the wholesale switch in elective offices.

Ike To Face Biggest Test In France

Talks With DeGaulle On Crucial NATO Matters Scheduled

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
PARIS (AP) — Fresh from triumphs among peoples and leaders of eight nations on three continents, President Eisenhower now faces his biggest test in France.

Can the Eisenhower personality enchant stubborn President Charles de Gaulle into easing his resistance to the wishes of the rest of the partners in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization? France's refusal to put more of her forces under control of the central NATO command presents Eisenhower with a real problem.

At the Western alliance's ministerial meeting this week, the French gave not an inch on an issue which the Americans made clear they feel is supremely important to the alliance.

There were even hints that the United States might pull its forces out of Europe if the French didn't come around.

Eisenhower and De Gaulle, two old soldiers, sit down in private Saturday to discuss this military problem. But more than that is bothering the French.

French officialdom has been hurt by what it obviously considers a lack of American support for France's efforts to end the Algerian rebellion. The French also appear to suspect that their British allies, in joining a European trade bloc outside the six-nation common market to which France belongs, are trying to repeat the old tactic of dividing the European continent to maintain Britain's position.

De Gaulle also is determined to re-establish the age-old glory of France. He wants France to have a voice in setting NATO policy equal to that of the United States and Britain, heretofore the dominant members of the alliance.

The Soviet leadership, of course, is highly pleased with the crisis facing the Western alliance.

It seems likely that Moscow hopes to extract some gain from Eisenhower's tour, in this fashion.

The Soviets claim that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev took the initiative in relaxing world tensions. They purport to welcome Eisenhower's world peace mission as a result of Khrushchev's initiative. But they are claiming that, because of the Soviet peace initiative, NATO finds itself in a military crisis. Possibly the Soviets even believe this and are waiting eagerly for a gradual disintegration of Western solidarity.

So the Soviet propaganda tone is soft almost to the point of tolerance. This, in the Muscovite view, would hardly be the time for noisy threats or boasting when the soft approach has given them some promise of pulling the Western alliance to pieces.

Instead, the Soviets continue to picture Eisenhower as a man in search of peace, and by implication tell the Asians that the Soviet Union is the source of that promise of peace.

Paris Talks Crucial Part Of His Tour

Looks Forward To Conferences With President DeGaulle

EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (AP)—Fit and cheerful after his three-day Mediterranean cruise, President Eisenhower landed in France today for a Western summit meeting that may need a peacemaker.

An echoing 21-gun salute greeted the U. S. heavy cruiser Des Moines as she brought the President into Toulon harbor, and French sailors snapped to attention as the President stepped down the gangway to French soil.

Brightly decked small boats criss-crossed the Mediterranean harbor and the sailors of the French fleet lined the rails of their warships to render honors to the President.

A bright sun glistened off the spic and span vessels and a few fluffy clouds floated lazily overhead. A brisk wind whipped the ships' pennants. The temperature was about 55 degrees.

French Minister of State Louis Jacquinot welcomed the President to France on behalf of President Charles de Gaulle.

"France first came to our aid in 1777," Eisenhower said in reply. "The underlying affection and respect of the two nations each for the other has never stopped."

"I am once again privileged to visit the lovely country of France and privileged to meet so many of her citizens," Eisenhower continued.

"Under General de Gaulle," the President said, "France and the United States are part of a great coalition and we are determined from a position of strength to pursue peace as much as we possibly can. We are sure that one day we shall win out."

With Jacquinot, the President entered an open car. Officers' shining sabers flashed in salute as the President drove out of the historic naval base. Eisenhower doffed his black homburg in reply.

Other leaders of the North Atlantic alliance awaiting Eisenhower in Paris looked to him to do something about President Charles de Gaulle's newly reformed stand against putting French military forces under control of the NATO command. But there was considerable doubt in Paris that even the U.S. president's much vaunted powers of persuasion would make much headway with the strong-willed Frenchman.

France is the ninth nation the President is visiting on his 11-nation tour, which has drawn enthusiastic support for his theme of peace with freedom at every stop. Six million persons have turned out to cheer him.

Now comes the work of the summit meeting — from Saturday through Monday — of Eisenhower, De Gaulle, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. It was called primarily to shape up their approach to the coming parley with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev on issues ranging from Berlin to nuclear disarmament.

$3,663,010 Bid Low

CADIZ — Hatcher Brothers, Inc., of Mingo Junction is the apparent low bidder for construction of 4.7 miles of Route 22 around Cadiz, a four-lane project due for completion in the fall of 1961. Hatcher bid $3,663,010, according to William P. McKenna, Highway Department Division 11 deputy director at New Philadelphia.

Fire Causes $3,500 Damage At Hillcrest

Damage was estimated at approximately $3,500 when a fire of undetermined origin swept the five-room frame home of a Hillcrest family Thursday night.

Wellsville firemen were called at 8:35 last night to the home of Harry Cline, 1127 Esther Ave., to fight the fire which apparently started in a clothes press. Fire Chief Robert Lewis of Wellsville said.

Chief Lewis said bedrooms on each side of the clothes press were damaged extensively and there was smoke and heat damage to the home and about $1,500 loss to the contents. There was no insurance on either, the chief said.

Clues Termed Slim In Touhy Assassination

Many Theories Seen As Chicago Police Intensify Search

CHICAGO (AP) — Slim clues, many theories and an apparent dead end marked the early police investigation for motives in the shotgun slaying of Roger Touhy, prohibition era gang chief.

As police intensified their search today for the killers of the 61-year-old ex-convict Wednesday night, there appeared many motives that might have prompted the assassination. There were not many clues.

Touhy was shot down by two men with 12 gauge shotguns only 23 days after he finished serving more than 25 years in Stateville Prison for kidnaping.

He was assassinated from ambush, in typical gangland fashion, as he and a companion, a retired policeman, mounted the steps of Touhy's home on the West Side.

The ex-policeman, Walter Miller, 62, was seriously wounded but before he collapsed he fired at the fleeing gunmen. He was in critical condition in a hospital.

Some investigators theorized that the remnants of the old Al Capone gang may be responsible for Touhy's murder. They were certain he became a target for crime syndicate vengeance.

Veteran policemen, who recalled the days when the rival Touhy and Capone mobs engaged in open gang war, said the killers waited more than 25 years to prove that the crime syndicate never forgives an enemy.

"Touhy definitely could have been shot in vengeance by surviving members of the Capone gang," said Virgil Peterson, former FBI agent and now head of the Chicago Crime Commission.

Leniency Due In 'Backward' Parking Rules

Effective Monday, police no longer will tag autos parked "against the free flow of traffic" in residential districts, but enforcement of the ordinance will continue in the business area.

A joint order to overlook "wrong way" parking in residential areas was issued to the police department today by Safety - Service Director Joseph F. Ross and Police Chief Americo Radeschi.

Defining the downtown area where tickets still will be issued for the violations, they said it is: Bounded on the north by 9th St., on the south by 2nd St., on the east by College St. and on the west by Jefferson St.

The director said the order was issued so as not to work a hardship on motorists who must park in front of their homes on hillside streets during slippery weather. If the law requires a driver to park with his car headed up-grade, he may not be able to get away from the curb after a snow or ice storm, the director pointed out.

A similar order for leniency on the parking violations in residential districts was issued last winter.

The violation is known as parking "against the free flow of traffic." If a motorist parks on the right hand side of the street, his auto must be headed the same way as traffic flows in the adjoining lane.

The director and the chief issued the order under an ordinance that allows the two officials to make temporary changes in traffic regulations for periods up to 90 days. There was no "cut-off" date specified in their order, so it presumably will be in effect the full 90 days.

City Hall Change To Be Sweeping

City Council's last regular meeting of the year Monday will be a forerunner to one of the most sweeping changes in history for the municipal government, which will see an almost solidly Republican official family bow out Dec. 31 to be succeeded by an equally solid Democratic group of administrators Jan. 1.

The switchover in Council seats will mean the loss of three real veterans. They are topped by Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr., a member at-large, who is rounding out his eighth year. Councilmen George E. Willshaw, a member at-large, and William Y. Orr, Second Ward member, are winding up six years' service.

Although Monday night will be the last regular meeting for the present Council, it may not be the last session before the end of the year. Last-minute year-end meetings generally are called to clear away final business.

THE end of the biennium also will mean changes in some appointive posts in addition to the wholesale switch in elective offices.

Motorist Hurt On North Side

A Maplewood man injured when his auto hit the rear of another car on North Side Thursday afternoon was fined $10 and costs today in Municipal Court when he pleaded guilty to failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Robert L. Johnson, 36, of 313 Azalea Ave. suffered a laceration of the left eyebrow at 12:45 p. m. at St. Clair Ave. and Avondale St. when his 1953 sedan hit the rear of a 1949 sedan operated by Lee C. Schmidbauer, 23, of 818 Highland Ave., police said. Johnson was released after treatment at City Hospital.

There was heavy damage to the front of Johnson's auto and the rear of Schmidbauer's car, police said.

Johnson told police he had just rounded a curve in St. Clair Ave. when Schmidbauer stopped suddenly in front of him. He said he applied the brakes but was unable to halt in time. Schmidbauer said he was stopping to pick up a passenger, but he did not know if his car was halted completely at the time of the crash.

A collision Thursday at 9:45 a. m. at Drury Ln. and Cherry Alley damaged cars driven by Thomas F. Kowalowski, 39, of Toronto and Hobart Adkins, 26, of 2019 Ohio Ave., police said.

Midland High Plans Concert By Vocal And Organ Students

The Midland Lincoln High School vocal and organ departments will present their annual public Christmas program Sunday at 3 p. m. in the auditorium.

The Crucible Steel Male Chorus will be the guest group and present the program with the school's concert and Junior High choirs. C. Lloyd Deffenbaugh, music supervisor at the school, will be acting director of the chorus. Mrs. Deffenbaugh is instructor for the organ students.

Organ preludes will include "Lullaby" (Brahms) and "Silent night" (Gruber) by Kathy Roach and "Gesu Bambino" (Yon) and "Christmas Wreath" (Cronham) by Sondra Moll.

Soloists for the first part of the program to be presented by the chorus will include Mrs. Eileen Brown, soprano, Donald Clark, tenor, and Ernest Lowe, baritone. Ralph Falconer will be accompanist.

Traditional Christmas carols will include "Fanfare for Christmas Day" (Shaw), "Winter Song" (Bullard), "Christmas Is Coming" (Milkey) and "A Star Was His Candle" (Del Riego), a tenor solo.

Others will be "Lo, How a Rose

E'er Blooming" (Praetorius-Rieger), "Jingle Bells" (Pierpont-Genuchi), "Rise Up Early" (Kountz) and "Sweet Little Jesus Boy" (MacGimsey), a baritone solo.

These will be followed by "Blow, Trumpets, Blow" (James), "Come to the Stable with Jesus" (O'Hara-Deis) and "O, Holy Night" (Adam-Duey), with Mrs. Brown as soloist.

Sondra Moll will then play an organ interlude, "Winter Wonderland," followed by the candlelight processional and "Joy to the World" by the high school choirs.

During Part 2 of the program, Hanukkah, the Hebrew holiday, Feast of Lights will be presented with narration and authentic music. There will be the Christmas story with narration from the prophets and Scriptures with traditional music.

The recessional selection will be "Silent Night," after which Miss Moll will play the organ postlude, "Hallelujah Chorus" (Handel).

The narrator for this part of the program will be Marie Cicconi. The prayer in Hebrew will be given by Barney Silverman. Parts will be spoken by Ellen Jo Huggins, Peggy Shriver, Barry Young and Daniel Ulizio.

Soloists will include Marva Kirkland, Claren Herter, Marion Anderson, June Singleton, Nick Popovich, Jeanette Tozani, and James Dapollonia. Accompanists will be Miss Moll, piano, and Carolyn Swope, organ.

Those who helped with the program include Principal William Walters, Miss Janet Deramo, assisting Junior Choir; Melvin Laing, speaking parts; Paul Farnan, Joe Csiszar and George Parasida, stage and lights; Miss Marjorie Lovejoy and Senior Tri-Hi-Y, ushers and Miss Viola Loszi programs.

The program will be broadcast by WOHL.

Holdup Duo Transferred

Two Coraopolis youths, nabbed Wednesday night by a Hancock County deputy for the holdup of a service station in Slovan, Pa., have been turned over to Washington County authorities.

Joseph Fluharty, 18, and Donald W. McKenna, 19, waived extradition and were transported to the Washington County Jail in Washington, Pa., from the Hancock County Jail in New Cumberland Thursday afternoon.

They were held for the Washington County grand jury at a hearing last night.

The youths, who confessed to obtaining $60 in the robbery of the service station near Dugettstown, were apprehended by Deputy Clayton Stine of Newell while off duty Tuesday night.

Deputy Stine made the arrests as he returned from East Liverpool police headquarters where he had given the descriptions of the pair to officers, along with a description of their auto.

Stine spotted the car on Route 66, halted it and ordered the youths to drive to Chester City Hall.

County Sheriff Clayton H. Hobbs commended Deputy Stine in capturing the pair. The fact that Stine had radio trouble led to the arrests as he normally would have broadcast descriptions to East Liverpool police and probably would not have been in the area when the youths were driving on Route 66, deputies said today.

Deputies indicated today that Fluharty and McKenna probably planned another robbery in the area as they had another auto parked on Route 30 in back of Chester. The second car was owned by Luther Fluharty, father of one of the youths, deputies said.

Wreaths To Be Placed At Chester Monuments

Christmas wreaths will be placed at veterans' monuments at 1st St., Chester, and at Locust Hill Cemetery Sunday by representatives of the American Legion Post 121 and auxiliary.

The wreaths will be laid at 2 p. m. by Mrs. Margaret Ingold, president of the auxiliary, and William Martin, post commander. The Upper Hancock County Burial Squad will participate in the service.

Weirton Store Sold

WEIRTON — Anthony (Tony) Leon has sold the Corner Bar and the Corner Cigar Store, according to transactions recorded in the Hancock County Courthouse in New Cumberland. James Hanna is the new owner of the bar, while A. James Boni purchased the cigar store. Leon will be associated with the DiSimone Construction Co. and Drew Products, Inc.

Clean Sweep

Mulberry St. barber, will become Council president. The balance of the new Council's lineup is:

First Ward, Clifford J. Cooper of St. George St., an employee of the Columbiana branch of the Midway Oil Co.; Second Ward, John F. Kelly of Vine St., a hot strip mill heater at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.; Third Ward, Donald E. Smith of Woodbine Ave., an employee of the transportation department at Crucible; Fourth Ward, Robert B. Laughlin of W. 2nd St., an employee of the Homer Laughlin China Co. and co-owner of Laughlin's Market.

MEMBERS-AT-LARGE: Donald S. Hancock of Monaca St., an employee of Crucible for 12 years; John A. Melvin, 2810 St. Clair Ave., co-owner of Rand's Drugstore, and Clinton R. Seever, 1036 Edgewood Ave., a Homer Laughlin employee for 34 years.

Seever is the only incoming councilman with previous experience. He served as Fourth Ward councilman in 1956-57. He was a member of the streets and claims committee and chairman of the rules committee.

The new Council will elect a clerk to succeed Goodman at its organization meeting Jan. 1.

Lawrence C. Applegate of St. George St. will become city auditor, succeeding H. J. Gallimore, who is rounding out his first full four-year term. Gallimore, a retired mail carrier, has served since early 1954. He was named to fill the unexpired term of E. Allan McKeever, who left the auditor's office to become mayor.

There are two hold-over officials—one Democrat and one Republican. The Democrat is Solicitor Joseph W. C. Cooper, now in his fourth term. The only Republican who survived the general election sweep of the Democrats is Treasurer Bert A. Dawson, who was elected to a ninth term.

IN MINOR APPOINTIVE jobs, there will not be the sweeping changeover that once would have been possible, as most of the workers have Civil Service protection.

The Civil Service status was extended to most persons on the payroll about 1947 shortly before former Mayor O. Earl Greenawalt retired from office.

Although there has been a lapse in some instances over the years, the protection of the classified service originally covered laborers, truck drivers and others in the water, incinerator and street departments, the filter and pump operators at the water works plant and most appointive department heads.

Some clerical posts at City Hall will be affected, as they are filled by elective officials. They include the receptionist - secretary in the mayor's office, a post now held by Mrs. Martha Plotts; a clerical post in the sewage department, held by Mrs. Marian Gerace, and the job of auditor's clerk, which has been filled since 1940 by Miss Gladys L. Rinehart.

The city's four "Meter Maids," women parking meter attendants, also are outside Civil Service ranks.

IRONICALLY, THE man who set up the Civil Service protection for city employees will lose his job Dec. 31 under the changeover because he is unprotected by classified service.

Greenawalt, now bailiff of Municipal Court, is one of four Municipal Court employees scheduled to step out when Atty. Samuel M. Chertoff begins a six-year term as judge, succeeding Judge G. L. Brokaw.

Greenawalt has served as bailiff for 10 years — throughout the tenure of the present judge. Also notified that they will not be re-appointed by the new judge are Harold L. Powell, who has served as clerk 12 years, and Mrs. Jean Saucer and Mrs. Mary B. Wolfe, who have been assistant clerks for approximately 3 years.

New Scout Troop Signs Charter Application

Boys and adult committee members of Midland Boy Scout Troop 415 signed an application Wednesday evening for a charter to be issued by the Pittsburgh Scout Council.

Tom Cilli and Joe Kadlak, who signed earlier for the new troop, attended their first meeting. Instruction was given in first aid and knot tying. Plans for judo lessons were discussed.

The troop plans a hike after Christmas. At the next meeting Wednesday in the Steelworkers Union Hall, a Christmas party will be held. George Huha, scoutmaster, presided.

Christmas Event Held For Grange

The Hookstown Grange met Thursday evening at the Grange Hall, held its Christmas program, and heard reports of projects for the coming year.

Projects to be continued include the school scholarships, nursing and first aid classes, donations to charity organizations and greater co-operation with area organizations for community service.

Mrs. Chester Elliott, lecturer, presented a program which featured a mixed quartet from Chester, led by Mrs. Betty Shaw, which sang Christmas songs.

Grabag gifts were brought by members which will be given to the Society for Crippled Children at Beaver.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Clifford Gray and Mrs. Bevy Wright.

Chester Elliott, master, presided. Next meeting will be Jan. 7.

Jockey Bill Boland climaxed his apprentice year in 1949 by winning the Kentucky Derby with Middleground.

TO SPEED HOLIDAY CALLS TO FAMILY & FRIENDS!

With Direct Distance Dialing, seasons greetings can be exchanged with ease and economy. Calls dialed yourself are made at the low station-to-station rate. This rate is even lower after 6:00 p. m. and on Sundays and Holidays.

You can further speed DDD calls by:

1. Checking list of dialable cities in your Blue Book or directory to find the code of the point you are calling.
2. Making sure you have the number of the party you are calling.
3. Dialing the code and the telephone number carefully and accurately.

If you don't know the number in the distant city, dial "Operator" and ask her for it. She will connect you with "Information" in that city. When she gives you the number, write it in your Blue Book of telephone numbers along with the code. No charge is made for this type of call to obtain information.

Call right now to obtain the code and number of distant friends or relatives. Then you'll be all ready for your holiday calls.

Better Call In The Psychologists

France's President De Gaulle would resent being thought of as a problem in psychology, though that is what he is in fact. Every national leader is a psychological problem in some degree.

In fact, the art of diplomacy in the past has been to satisfy the psychological needs of the heads of government, with a view to keeping them from taking attitudes of belligerence.

It may well be that President Eisenhower's tour of key spots is nothing more or less than the application of proved principles of psychological persuasion to some of the concrete problems of international relations.

The late John Foster Dulles when he was secretary of state used the mechanistic approach, presenting his case like a corporation lawyer with a carefully prepared brief. He was tireless in his efforts and inexorable in his logic.

Among other legalistic thinkers, Mr. Dulles made a tremendous impact. But not all leaders are inclined to think like legalists. Not all of them subscribe to the philosophy of mechanism—that there are absolute rights and absolute wrongs and the world can be trimmed like a ship, by shifting the rights and wrongs to achieve perfect balance.

PRESIDENT DE GAULLE is decidedly not a problem in mechanistic thinking. He is a challenge to psychologists, not legalists.

What he is openly trying to do for France is restore its spirit, which is a project in the emotional aspects of nationalism.

The President of France is, himself, a politician dedicated to the doctrine that French pride, even to the point of arrogance, is a more important asset than an unimpeachable record of carrying out obligations to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, for example.

If it had been presented to President De Gaulle that the stature of France would be enhanced by performing certain acts, instead of its having been presented to him that he should knuckle under to the criticism of other nations dissatisfied with France's role, the atmosphere at this month's critical NATO meeting might be more harmonious than it is.

THIS IS NOT an easy thing for Americans to understand—that there are times when that cannot afford to be 100 per cent right at the expense of making others seem to be 100 per cent wrong.

All nations have pride. All national leaders are expected to give voice to national pride. Charles De Gaulle's destiny as a Frenchman, he believes, is to restore the pride and the glory that France frittered away during half a generation of inept political leadership that doomed its government to weakness and confusion.

The problem, if there is going to be one, calls for the skill of psychologists, not the cut-and-dried admonitions and threats of legalists who try to turn every relationship into a contract.

The United States, which has had reason in the past to be grateful for French nationalism and French pride, can afford to be generous in its approach to what otherwise would look like violation of a contract.

The Shout Heard 'Round The World

John L. Aided Miners, Industry

By Victor Riesel

We are really a special band of reporters — we who have covered Leonine John Lewellyn Lewis. We have covered the last giant. We have heard him say to his

He has damned the National Guard in strikes. He has inveighed against Presidents. Yet he has permitted coal to be dug by television. And that is the saga of John Lewis.

Through closed circuit TV eyes, control panel operators far from the face of the pit watch digging machinery and conveyor belts move the coal up to the surface without benefit of human hands.

It is such machinery which has dug into the heart of the great United Mine Workers of America. Hundreds of thousands of coal diggers have been replaced by mechanization. By permitting this, John Lewis has permitted the dissolution of his empire. Today he leaves little of his once mighty army of 650,000 miners.

BUT HE HAS SAVED the industry which today can sell American coal in Germany, Belgium and England for $3-4 less a ton than their own black fuel right in their own backyard.

Long ago Lewis saw the inevitability of the machine replacing the man below the earth. He began to build his welfare fund into a 125-million-dollar-a-year pool of cash.

Today there are some 150,000 miners on pension. They are being joined by another 10,000 men a year.

Today there are less than 180,000 men in the union. In a decade the United Mine Workers Union will be a majestic relic of ancient days with few men actually tearing coal out of the face with picks.

But the miners of today will live on their pensions. They will be doctored by the clinics and the 10 hospitals Lewis has built. There is a great treasury and the powerful bank owned by the union in Washington.

Having cared for his men and his industry, having outlived all the giants, having solved as much of the problem of coal as he could, John L. Lewis decided to leave majestically through a side door instead of fighting for the center of the stage at 80 years of age.

He leaves those coal diggers who are now earning the world's greatest industrial wage — an average of $26 a day. And this is really one of the shortest work days, in modern industrialism. His people are paid portal-to-portal. They are paid for their lunch hours.

MUCH WILL BE WRITTEN of his jousting with powerful men. But the real story of John Lewis the story of how he leaves the coal industry. He saved it.

He encouraged smaller uncooperative mines to merge into efficient big coal companies. There were more industrialists knocking on his union door than at the mortgage and loan departments of giant banks.

The industry's relations with him are reflected in the words of the president of the Pittston Coal Co., owner of mines, owner of the U.S. Trucking Corp., and owner of Brink's Inc. He said of Lewis recently:

"He has encouraged mechanization and demanded his share of the profits, with which I have no dispute."

Joseph P. Routh, Pittston president, added, "He has never condoned or allowed featherbedding in any form or manner and he has cooperated with the operators both financially and otherwise to maintain and increase our market."

Lewis has done this by deciding that the miners' organization was really expendable where the welfare of the nation was involved. Not the existence of the union, and not its strength, but its size was expendable.

Lewis has said that he was not the leader to be concerned with the number of men who went down the pits.

THE YOUNG MEN will go off the mine patches and find other jobs, he has said. And the older miners will live on the pensions. Those who continue to work will have the greatest income of their lives.

Thus the average coal output of each man in an American mine today is 12 tons per day against a ton-and-a-half in Europe or Russia.

The Pittston mines are planning to mechanize so they can get 45 tons a day per man.

And despite the $26 a day wage, the price of coal at the mine head has actually gone down. In 1948, the price was $4.99 a ton. Today it is $4.86 a ton — down 13 cents. It took courage to do this just as it took courage to tell U.S. Presidents not to bother him or to try to mine coal with bayonets. And so, it took courage to step aside when the work of an era was done.

It took the courage of a giant. John L. Lewis is that giant.

We who covered him now have a mystique among us, which never will leave us.

A Look At Rocky

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

In the past few weeks, New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has taken a stand on a number of issues ranging from labor to farmers to foreign affairs. On some he's been direct, on some fuzzy.

On and off for weeks he's been whisking around the country to figure his chances if he ran against Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the Republican 1960 presidential nomination.

Since Nixon has had years to line up Republicans on his side — and Rockefeller admits the vice president has a big edge — this has been a little like looking for Santa Claus. So he has had to identify himself by taking a stand.

He has had to give Republicans some reasons — beyond a big smile — why they might prefer him to Nixon. Nixon, being in front, has stayed quiet.

In this past week in the Midwest Rockefeller has been banging into Nixon strongholds. But he's kept up a cheerful look. He said he will announce early in January whether he will try to take on Nixon.

Probably the most controversial thing he has said yet — because it ran head on into President Eisenhower's policy — was his stand on nuclear weapons testing.

The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union have suspended the tests while they try to work out some fool-proof agreement to end them altogether. Rockefeller said he would resume the tests. His reason: To keep the United States from falling "behind in the advanced techniques of nuclear materials."

Here are other positions he has taken.

Labor: He suggests labor forego further reductions in the work week as a help to the country's economic growth; the President should have legal power to compel compulsory arbitration when a long strike threatens the country's welfare.

But — he said he doesn't think compulsory arbitration should apply to all strikes. He made it plain he was talking only about extreme cases.

On the Supreme Court's ban on public school segregation: He said: "I regard it as necessary and historic affirmation and clarification of the essential liberties and the abiding principles by which America must live."

This was a more direct stand than Eisenhower has so far taken on the decision which was handed down May 17, 1954.

Federal aid to education: He's for such aid — for school construction and scholarships — "where there is proven need."

Birth control: He said: "If the people of a country requesting technical assistance from the United States in an area where it had knowledge (as in birth control) it would seem to me that the United States would want to cooperate with them if it was in the interest of the other country."

Health insurance: He favored a system of health insurance which would preserve the private kind but supplement it with government action where needed.

Non-Communist affidavit: He called for repeal of the non-Communist affidavit required of college students seeking loans under the National Defense Education Act but he said he thought they should be willing to take the loyalty oath required by law.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson: He doesn't agree with suggestions by some Republicans that Benson should quit. He said "we are not going to solve problems by seeking scapegoats."

Farm program: He outlined a 4-point one, based primarily on long-term rentals on farms by the federal government. This was a pretty sketchy proposal. But he said the present price support systems don't meet the needs of the farm problem.

Foreign affairs: He outlined a 7-point program. This was extremely vague, except for saying the United States should retain maximum military power.

Oil depletion: In response to a question he said he was favorably disposed toward the oil depletion tax allowance because it has a stimulating effect on industry.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — "Make This Christmas A Fireless Christmas" was the appeal made by Fire Chief Thomas Bryan.

The Chester Presbyterian Church basketball team opened its schedule with a 32-9 win over the East Liverpool DeMolays.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Fifty-four hundred children in the East Liverpool public schools began their Christmas vacation.

Sixty-five young people from churches in the Steubenville Presbytery attended a meeting of the district Young People's Christian Union at the First United Presbyterian Church here.

TEN YEARS AGO — Nearly 2,000 attended the fourth annual Christmas program in Memorial Auditorium presented by 600 students in the Music Department of East Liverpool High School.

Curious Reasoning

By David Lawrence

Many Misunderstand Status Of Companies

Letters from readers about recent proposals for legislation to prohibit industrywide bargaining and "restraints of trade" by labor unions are naturally divided between those who think it would be a desirable reform and those who don't. But a curious thing is the reason given by some critics for urging immunity from legal restraints for unions. They argue that workers are "human beings" while companies are just "machines" operated by people anxious to make a "fast buck."

This is the type of comment often used in class warfare but the odd part about it is that many union spokesmen actually indoctrinate their members with such antagonisms — as if it will aid them in maintaining unionism.

It may be respectfully asked, aren't employers "human beings," too? Do not the executives of a business work long hours and often at home in the evenings and on weekends on their papers and office memoranda trying to keep abreast of the fast-moving world of competition?

Doesn't the government take a big slice of their incomes and wouldn't the Treasury receipts from corporations shrink a good deal if the inventive minds and geniuses of American industry who create jobs here to insist on an eight-hour day five days a week, with time-and-a-half pay for every hour given to business affairs after the day's work is supposed to be done?

THERE'S A HUE and cry now about expense accounts rendered by persons who are usually connected with sales staffs or management and it is right and proper, of course, for the Treasury to insist on the proper use of that deduction.

One wonders, however, what would happen to the size of corporate deductions if companies really began paying their executives wages for the time they spent on trips away from home doing company business.

It so happens that the railroads are, in effect, paying their crews increased compensation to offset time spent in another city till the return trip home begins. Many businessmen do the same thing and never get paid for it.

The fact of the matter is that, in the eyes of the law, workers at a factory bench and workers at a desk on the management side are the same — their rights are equal. Management is forbidden to enter into understandings with the executives of competing companies relating to prices or division of territory or other monopolistic practices. The law of the land forbids it. Yet unions can form combinations that include the locals in every competing plant and they can thereby control the operations of an entire industry.

For many years there was an agitation to bring labor unions to book under existing antitrust laws but, when the Supreme Court of the United States came under the domination of so-called "liberal" justices, a ruling was proclaimed that, under the then existing laws, labor was not a "commodity."

The theory was that the movement of commodities in interstate commerce could be regulated but not the acts of the workers who make those commodities.

CONGRESS HAS the constitutional right to regulate the operations of labor unions, just as it has the right to prevent "restraints of trade" by management.

An individual has a right to strike but concerted action with other individuals can be the subject of restrictive laws.

Congress has acted to prevent racketeering. In the last session a law was passed guaranteeing workers their rights as against unscrupulous union leaders. Proposals now are being discussed to do away with monopolistic practices in industrywide bargaining.

The argument that unions are different because their members are "human beings" is often cited but this tends to ignore the injuries committed against other "human beings."

Thus, today few workers dare to cross a picket line. The fear of violence to the worker or injury to his family is widespread.

Voluntary unionization exists to a considerable degree but the process is often marred by coercive tactics.

Millions of dollars of dues, paid by "human beings" in labor unions are used to fight the passage of laws that would guarantee other "human beings" the right to work irrespective of whether they joined a union.

Freedom of belief is a sacred doctrine today in almost everything except the right of an individual to refrain from joining a union whose political pronouncements on current issues are opposite from his own.

Last but not least are the "human beings" who save some of their wages each week and then buy shares in various companies.

Their money helps to buy new tools and improved machinery and, if such capital were not forthcoming, American industry could not thrive and the government would have to furnish the capital, as is the case in all Communist countries — where, incidentally, the worker owns nothing and loses his status as a "human being."

'Covering' Ike's Trip

News Services Worked Smoothly

It's all in a day's work for news-men and reporters covering a big event like President Eisenhower's overseas trip.

Review readers no doubt can get an inkling of the difficulty of their task from reading about the huge crowds turning out for each of the President's appearances.

The secret of the swift coverage in word and picture from remote spots on the globe was advance preparation.

James Hagerty, the President's press secretary; others from the White House, and the President's plane crew went over the whole route in advance, mile by mile and airport by airport.

Timing, communications, weather contacts and other details were checked in advance.

The press associations — Associated Press and United Press International — made similar arrangements in advance. Communications were their big problem — how to arrange for clear signals and handle large volumes of news dispatches and photos on limited facilities.

THE DELICATE communications setups, necessitated by slender commercial facilities from the remote areas, worked well on the whole, it was reported this week.

A bad spell of atmospheric blots out all photo transmissions from New Delhi in India for many hours, but eventually the pictures came through to New York for quick retransmission over the UPI Wirephoto network to the Review and other newspapers around the world.

Photographers at the Rome airport had a frustrating experience, because they had been stationed in advance in fixed positions and ordered not to move from them.

They were all set when the President arrived. But it was raining, and they stood aghast as Mr. Eisenhower ducked under an umbrella and walked off, away from them.

In that emergency, a photographer stationed on the airport roof came to the picture rescue — he made three long-range "shots" that covered the situation from afar. His negatives were developed in a dark room rigged up in a green and white beach umbrella with green drapes.

"It took plenty of arranging and preliminary testing," AP revealed, "to achieve a working circuit for photos from Ankara."

The photo reproduction, signals came from Ankara to Rome and thence across the Atlantic.

NEVER BEFORE last week had United States newspapers published pictures sent by radio from Karachi, Pakistan.

Never before had they printed pictures from Kabul, Afghanistan, on the day they were taken.

And last week, AP pointed out, marked the first time AP photographers had developed film in a jet airliner, as they did high over the famed Khyber Pass.

These, as AP phrased it, comprised a few of the photographic firsts of the President's tour as picture crews swung into action after weeks of concentrated preparation.

The rehearsals, the myriad of details of preparation, the sweating it out over communications problems and the skill and hard work of professional newsmen brought the finished production smoothly onto the stage of American newspapers... all in the day's work of informing the American public as to what is going on in the world.

Who Will Follow The Trail Blazers?

If John L. Lewis didn't get the thrill of his long lifetime when he read the reactions to his announcement of retirement, the old fire-eater has lost his appetite for flamboyancy. It was the next best thing to reading what will be said about him in some future day when he dies, except that all comments then will be anticlimactical. Everything worth saying has been said now.

The sum of the comments suggests how much will be subtracted from unionism when symbols like Mr. Lewis disappear. A reader thinks of Phil Murray and William Green, of the Tobins, Hutchesons and Becks who gave the labor movement its momentum in this century.

They were the powerful figures of an era that is passing, as every era must pass. The trail blazers have gone. It is time to watch their successors. Some are in sight.

Walter Reuther is a thousand light years distant from the era of John L. Lewis, yet it was Lewis who gave vertical unionism its sense of direction and opened the way for the United Auto Workers.

George Meany is clearly out of step with James R. Hoffa, yet Mr. Meany must give thought to the certainty in Hoffa's mind that he, not Meany, is riding the wave of the future; that it was Dave Beck who made the Teamsters strong, not the critics of Beck's ham-fisted tactics.

The battle-scarred veterans of the picket lines in the '30s, when modern unionism was clawing its way to power do not speak the same language as the new generation of college-trained theoreticians who fight with statistics and law. But both are part of the thing that modern unionism turned out to be, and in due time the men who followed them will be followed in turn by others, who may be something undreamed of now.

There will be changes. Another John L. Lewis would not be conceivable now. Nor, for that matter, would a 19th century "robber baron" be conceivable in the mid-20th century. Cartoonists no longer draw caricatures of "bloated plutocrats" in plug hats and gold watch chains, and it has been many years since any cartoonist caricatured the bushy eyebrows of John Lewis, whose era had ended before he made his decision to call it quits.

His successor when he retires will be 72-year-old Thomas Kennedy, a national officer of United Mine Workers for 25 years and a former lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania. Obviously, a successor to Kennedy will have to be found soon.

But there will be no more John Lewises, for the same reason there will be no more "robber barons." Time has passed them by.

The class warfare they waged is over. The people's enterprise that has taken its place does not call for the same qualities. When coal miners make as much in a short work day as they once made in a long work week, the leader of their union no longer can thunder that they are being ground under the heel of exploitation.

One Of The Oldest Stories Ever Told

Fidel Castro is saying and doing so many things which do not add up to sense that he is forcing the friends of Cuba to reach one of two conclusions.

Either this man who held bright promise of being a sound leader when he toppled the unsound regime of Fulgencio Batista is not making sense deliberately, or he has become incapable of making sense.

If the latter conclusion is reached, Castro would have to be judged to be another victim of the paranoia that claimed Hitler and Stalin, who both had strong delusions of persecution where their countries were concerned.

Castro's newest talking point is a forthcoming "invasion" of Cuba.

The threat of sinister opposition preparing to stage an overthrow or an invasion is one of the oldest stories told by political leaders struggling to stay in command of popular support.

The Once Over

The recent decision by the U.S. Tax Court that tropical resort vacation costs are deductible from income tax, if the trip is by a doctor's orders, may mean a big boom for pleasure resorts and physicians.

Prescriptions are in big demand reading "RX. Sunshine, beach rest, daily doubles and warmth. Take as needed."

We just heard of a physician who is so rundown through arguments with patients seeking Florida and California vacations, under court ruling, that he is in greater need of a rest than they are. The medical-office threat of the season is "If you can't find I'm in need of a long winter vacation, I'll get me a doctor who knows his business."

Look for a new diagnosis instrument called the "Vacationograph." Doctor straps it on legs, arms, chest, etc., as with cardiograph machine and gets chart with four possible verdicts: (1) You need a winter at St. Petersburg with possible dose of Bermuda and Miami; (2) your health and taxation require that you be taken off snow, ice, thermostat worries and woolen pajamas at once and put on the Southern California or Pacific Cruise treatment; (3) patient is not in best of health but needs no cabanas or daily doubles at this time. Try Atlantic City weekends.

Look for the following testimonials "For years I suffered from aching back, bronchitis, flatulency and low blood pressure. A friend told me about the Riviera. I tried it and have been a new person ever since."

ELVIS PRESLEY will soon finish army service. Releasing Elvis will be simple but how will we demobilize all the palaces, palace staffs, chauffeurs, etc.?

Remember away back when you never looked for mother in a bowling alley?

We hear Democrats are cabling India, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Greece, Turkey, etc., demanding equal time.

"Che" Guevara, Cuban banking boss, has told business houses that he will send military men to them for training as executives. A sort of Cuban "Have Gun; Will Take Business Lessons" program. It's like asking circus aerial acrobats to co-operate with men who want acts performed without nets.

(How's business?) "It's as good as bayonets can make it."

Scents are now projected in movies. (This is NEW!!!) Report that a big new pix called "Operatio Garlic" is in the works is unofficial. We don't mind inhaling movies, but what producer will be first to put filter tip on back of movie-house chairs?

THERE'S ONE THING about Ike's trip: At no point did he have to ask, "Where are all the people?"

2 Youths Hurt In Wrestling

Two youths injured in separate wrestling mishaps were among eight adults and young people treated at City Hospital Thursday.

Don Seibert, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Seibert of Bradshaw Ave., was treated for a thumb injury suffered while wrestling at school.

Joseph Hager, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hager of Pennsylvania Ave. Ext., was treated for a nose injury received while wrestling Wednesday night.

Ronald Buzzard, 9, son of Mrs. Ruth Buzzard of Riley Ave., suffered a laceration of the right hand on a knife last night.

In a fall against a window, Thomas H. Fannin, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fannin of Thompson Ave., received cuts of the wrist and elbow last night.

Steven Watters, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Regis Watters of Dresden Ave., Ext., was treated for a cut of the eyebrow suffered on a toy gun while at play.

Steven Hutton, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hutton of Louisiana Ave., Chester, received a cut thumb on an auto jack.

While at work for a Smiths Ferry concern, Metro Tokarek, 26, of High Park, Pa., received a compound fracture of a finger on which a stone fell.

William Bowen, 28, of Cadiz, a driller for the Ohio Highway Department testing laboratory, suffered a cut finger at work.

The only animals known to live in the south polar continent of Antarctica all year around are one species of insect and one species of penguin.

Last 2 Officials-Elect To File Expense Lists

The last two officials - elect named at the Nov. 3 general election have promised that their sworn statements of campaign expenses will be delivered personally to the County Election Board's office before the deadline at 4 this afternoon, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, reported this morning.

The officials - elect were warned again Thursday that law forbids the Election Board to issue certificates of election to persons who have not filed expense statements. The warnings were given yesterday. Three complied in the meantime and the remaining two telephoned the board to say they will deliver the reports personally to assure they will not be delayed in the Christmas mail rush.

3 Countians Named For Republican Dinner

John Thompson of East Liverpool and Earl Miller and James Criswell of Salem have been named ticket chairmen for Columbiana County for a $100-a-plate Northeastern Ohio Republican dinner at Cleveland Jan. 27.

A. W. Steudel of Cleveland has been appointed chairman of the "Dinner With Ike" event to be held at 7:30 at the Cleveland Public Auditorium.

A major GOP fund-raising event for 1960, the dinner is designed to help raise funds early in the year for the party's activities at the local, state and national levels.

Robert B. Anderson, secretary of the Treasury, will be guest speaker.

Jerry West, 6-foot-3 senior from Cabin Creek, W. Va., promises to shatter West Virginia basketball records in his final season.

Enrollment Goal Eyed For Scouts

LISBON — With the year's end in sight, Cub Scout Packs, Boy Scout Troops and Explorer Posts of the Columbiana Boy Scout Council's Shawnee District are pushing to make their membership goal for 1959, according to Leonard McDaniel, district executive. They aim to exceed last year's enrollment.

He reported 13 new Cub Scouts from Pack 6 of St. Paul's Catholic Church in Salem were registered Thursday.

Cubmasters, scoutmasters and explorer advisors are urged to turn in their additional enrollments by Dec. 31.

Embroidered patches are being awarded to the boy who recruits a new member, who also is eligible for the insignia. New members recruited this month count toward the unit's Golden Jubilee year award.

Additional enrollments in the Salem area may be turned in to James Peters, district commissioner at Salem, in Lisbon at the Scout office and Columbiana and East Palestine area units may obtain their patches from Fred Joebechen, district chairman at the Columbiana Appliance Center at Columbiana.

Interviewing Slated For County Farm Aide

LISBON — The county extension advisory committee and 4-H Council will meet Monday at 8 p. m. in the county extension office to interview an applicant for county extension agent in 4-H work.

Charles A. Hass, northeast extension supervisor, will present the applicant to the group. Ralph Schneider of North Georgetown will preside. The county has not had an extension agent in 4-H work since Don Myers moved up to agent in agriculture Oct. 1, when Al Pugh transferred to Portage County.

Easement Granted

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioner Thursday accepted the Ohio Edison Co.'s bid for an easement for electric transmission lines across a part of Section 24 in Salem Township.

He Brought Majestic Here

Capt. Reynolds Rites Set;
Showboat Skipper Drowns

Funeral will be held Saturday at Point Pleasant, W. Va., for the last of the Ohio river showboat captains — Thomas (Tom) J. Reynolds, 71.

The steam calliope of the Showboat Majestic, which entertained here several summers, will play the dirge for the veteran skipper who died as he had lived — in the river.

He was drowned when he fell into the Kanawha River Wednesday while working around the Majestic's towboat at its moorings at Point Pleasant.

Details of the mishap were not known but a son, Thomas Reynolds Jr., believes he may have been thrown overboard by the kick of the diesel motor on the Attaboy, which pushed the last of the showboats up and down the Ohio and tributaries for over 35 years. He frequently tinkered about the boat and was alone at the time. Firemen recovered the body in about 25 feet of water.

Capt. Reynolds, who came of a showboat family, went on the river as a boy and about 1910 bought a peddling boat, selling household goods from landing to landing, announcing his approach with five long blasts of his steam whistle.

Later he built and operated the Illinois and America when showboats were the only form of entertainment for small riverside communities.

A number of the floating theaters plied the inland waterways then. Now there is only the Majestic on the Ohio and another anchored permanently at Saint Louis.

There were 14 showboats on the nations rivers when the Majestic was built in 1923 at Pittsburgh. His death was the end of an era.

He leased the Majestic in 1952 to the Hiram Players of Hiram College who used it as a drama department activity and gave old "meleodrammers" up and down the Ohio, paying off expenses of the annual summer cruises and making a little on the side. Previously, professionals trod its stage — and manned its galley.

They showed here and at Wellsville several summers and played only at Pittsburgh more recently. The Majestic was sold in August to Indiana University for $30,000 and is to be delivered up the Wabash River next year.

He was a native of Point Pleasant and is survived by his widow, who traveled with him on the Majestic for 20 years, and five sons and four daughters.

The service will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the Presbyterian Church on an elevation overlooking the river. Burial will be there.

Wife Claimed
At Wellsville

Mrs. Myrna Ann Congrove, wife of Albert W. Congrove, died Thursday at 6:45 p. m. at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Alta Smith, of Kountz Ave., Wellsville, where she resided. She was 73 and had been ill for a long period.

She was born in Waverly, daughter of the late David and Almada Harvey Ormsby, and resided in this vicinity 40 years.

She was employed last at the Harker Pottery Co. She was a member of the First Church of Christ of East Liverpool and the IBOF.

Besides her husband and daughter, she leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Alice Bowers and Mrs. William J. Breneman, both of East Liverpool; two sons, Frank Congrove of Alliance and Leonard Congrove of East Liverpool; two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Murphy of Tampa, Fla., and Miss Edith Ormsby of Inverness, Fla., and eight grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by John Mostoller, minister. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday.

Mrs. Della Wood

Services for Mrs. Della Stewart Wood, 327 Grant St., will be held Saturday morning at 11 at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. James Hunton, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, assisted by the Rev. O. L. Benedum. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

She died Wednesday night at home after a lengthy illness.

Survivors include three brothers, Herbert Stewart and L. Merle Stewart, both of Florida, and Clarence Hall of Mansfield and a sister, Mrs. Floyd Bechtel of Mansfield.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and night.

Mrs. John Drake

Mrs. Mary McClurg Drake of Ironton, a native of Hookstown, and wife of John Drake, died Thursday morning at 6:30 at a hospital in Ironton after an illness of 6 months. She was 47.

She was born in Hookstown Oct. 25, 1912.

Other survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Dixie Cloran, Miss Donna Lee Drake and Mrs. Margaret Dennis, all of Ironton; five sisters, Mrs. Hazel Smith of Fort Cobb, Okla., Mrs. Pauline Martin of Hookstown, Mrs. Pearl Diehl of East Liverpool, Mrs. Angie Fzell of Zellenople and Mrs. Dorothy Barnett of Rochester; two brothers, Charles McClurg of Hookstown and Everett McClurg of Aliquippa, and a half-brother, Harry Booth of Hookstown.

Services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Tracey-Brahm Funeral Home at Ironton with burial there.

Coast Firm Signs
Pact With New
IBOP Local Union

The Western Pottery Co., Inc., at Hollydale, Calif., has signed its first contract with newly-organized Local 307 of the International Brotherhood of Operative Pottery, granting a general wage boost ranging from 20 to 30 cents an hour and other concessions.

The IBOP announced today. Employees of the sanitary ware concern chose the Brotherhood as bargaining agent in a recent election supervised by the NLRB, the union said.

The new local charged the employees "worked the past 10 years under sweatshop conditions."

The contract also calls for 7 paid holidays, with double time and a half pay for persons required to work; shift differentials of 6 cents hourly on the swing turn and 11 cents on the "graveyard" shift; a health and welfare program to which the company will contribute $7.50 per month per employee, and a paid vacation plan. Seniority clauses, a union shop and dues check-off also are provided, the IBOP said.

DeMolays Enroll
3 With Initiation

Three were accepted as new members when Harding Chapter, Order of DeMolay, met Thursday night in the Masonic Temple.

James Moidel, Ronald McAtee and Joseph Blankenship were initiated by a team of officers from the East Palestine chapter headed by Jack Brown, master counselor.

A need for more basketball players for the chapter's team was reported during business conducted by Darrell Smith, master counselor. A letter was read from the chapter's Mothers Circle, announcing the gift of officers' jewels.

Members were reminded of a Christmas dance planned Dec. 26 in the Masonic Temple with Job's Daughters invited.

The next meeting will be Jan. 7 in the temple, according to Gary Hicks, scribe.

Santa To Attend Lodge
Party For Youngsters

Santa Claus will be at the annual Moose Lodge 122 Christmas party for children of members Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 at the lodge hall. Treats will be distributed.

The annual New Year's Eve party will be held at 9 p. m. at the lodge home. Hats and noisemakers will be provided and there will be music for dancing.

A 25-minute Christmas concert will be presented by the 60-member choir of Moosechart, High School Dec. 25 over Steubenville radio station WSTV, according to Eugene Springer, governor of the East Liverpool lodge.

350 Attend Christmas
Concert At Wellsville

About 350 attended the annual Christmas music festival presented by Wellsville High School choral and instrumental groups Thursday night at the Beacom Memorial Gymnasium.

The choir and vocal ensembles were directed by Miss Phyllis Zimmerman, and the band was led by Theodore Koenig.

Congregation
Picks Officers

New officers for the coming year were elected at the annual meeting of the congregation of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church of Midland Thursday evening in the Serbian National Home.

Re-elected were Alex Krivosia, president; Peter Esopovich, vice president; Miss Mildred Milkovich, secretary; Mrs. Peter Vorkapich, treasurer, and Mrs. Mark Yandrich, financial secretary.

New board members elected were Mrs. Nick Vranes and Steve Roknich. Elected to the auditing board were Montgomery Popovich, president, Reuben Vranes, Sylvester Vranes and Mrs. Sam Mamula, who was re-elected.

Tutors of the church were re-elected including Steve Roknich, Milan Vujaklyia, Peter Deer, Daniel Page, Milos Cimesha, Peter Esopovich and William Anusich.

They will be installed by Fr. Milorad Dobrota Sunday, Dec. 27 following the Divine Liturgy at 10 a. m. The next regular monthly meeting of the congregation will be in January, usually held the second Thursday, but will be announced due to observance of Holy days.

Parents Lose Custody
Of Boys In Burglary

LISBON — Three Salem youths, 11, 12 and 14, who were apprehended entering a food store Tuesday, were taken from the custody of their parents Thursday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

The two older boys were placed in County Welfare Department foster homes, and the youngest was placed with his grandmother at Elkins, W. Va.

The trio was nabbed by Constable William Frederick who had the store — the Suburban Food Center of New Garden St. — under surveillance because the boys had previously entered it, authorities said.

LISBON — A 14-year-old Salem boy who stole a $20 radio from the Sears Roebuck & Co. in Salem was reprimanded Thursday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin and instructed to make a personal apology to the manager. The radio was recovered.

Foster Home Children's
Yule Fund Hits Goal

The annual Christmas fund for foster-home children went over the top today, according to Robert Bycroft, director of the County Welfare Department at Lisbon.

The goal of $1,600 was reached with contributions in the morning mail and will enable each child to receive a selected gift. There are approximately 200 wards of the welfare department in foster homes.

Club, Lodge Here
To Play Santa At Sunday Parties

Two more district groups — the Owls Club and the Eagles Lodge — announced plans today to play "Santa" at Christmas parties for children Sunday.

The Owls program will get underway at 2 p. m. for children of members of the club. Santa will pass out Christmas stockings and students of the Cassidy School of Dancing will present a floor show.

The Eagles party will begin at 3 p. m. Santa again will be on hand and the Cassidy group will entertain.

4-H Committee Slates
Annual County Awards

LISBON — The Columbiana County 4-H awards and recognition committee reviewed individual 4-H awards and honor awards at a meeting Thursday evening at the county extension office. Minor changes were recommended.

Members discussed honor club awards to be presented at the 4-H rally in honor of national 4-H Club Week, March 5-12. Awards similar to previous years will be presented at that time. Leo Davis of East Rochester presided.

530 Traffic Deaths
Seen Christmas Period

CHICAGO (AP)—An estimated 530 persons may be killed during the long Christmas weekend, says the National Safety Council.

The council said the number would compare with 370 deaths on the highways during a non-holiday weekend at this time of year.

The count of traffic deaths will start at 6 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 24 and continue until midnight Dec. 27, a period of 78 hours.

During last year's Christmas holiday, which covered a four-day period, or 96 hours, 594 persons were killed in traffic accidents.

Father Given Jail

LISBON — John Cochrane, 50, of Alliance was sentenced to 10 days in the County Jail by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin Thursday after he was found guilty of contempt of court in failing to support his minor child.

70 Attend Yule Party

SALINEVILLE — About 70 attended a Christmas dinner meeting of the Ruritan Club Thursday night at the Methodist Church. Santa Claus distributed gifts, and a puppet show was presented by students under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Baker. A gift was presented George Gopper, who is moving to East Liverpool. Wives were guests.

Santa and the ICE KING

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

Synopsis: After a terrible fight, Santa, Onik and Keotuk subdued the giant polar bear and made friends with him. Now the bear is taking them to the domain of the Ice King. Santa and Onik hope to convince the Ice King that he must end the continuous winter that threatens to starve all who live in the North.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

Onik dragged the big sled from the igloo and Santa harnessed it to the now gentle polar bear. Then Santa and Onik and Keotuk got on the sled and the polar bear started away.

At first the bear walked slowly and kept looking behind as if trying to understand what he was pulling and why. But after a while he got used to it and even began to enjoy it. He felt that he was stronger and more powerful than these creatures, after all, for he was taking them somewhere, not they taking him.

He began to run and the heavy sled sped over the ice like a pebble skimming over water.

Keotuk was very pleased to be a rider. Every now and then he leaped from the sled and ran along beside the bear to make sure everything was all right. But now even Keotuk could not keep up with the fast bear and the dog always tired and jumped back on the sled to travel in style.

"Who are you?" thundered the Ice King

On and on they went until finally the day came when Santa touched Onik on the shoulder and shouted, "There it is!"

ONIK POKED his head out of his fur hood and looked where Santa pointed. He saw a lofty castle made all of ice shimmering behind veils of swirling snow.

The castle stood on a hill and its bluish white spires towered into the sky. Gale winds lashed around the hill, whipping at the castle walls and howling among the steeples.

"How strange it is!" shivered Onik when they reached the castle. "Aren't you afraid?"

"I am, indeed," confessed Santa.

Even Keotuk and the polar bear when they arrived at the castle were overwhelmed by the eerie solitude. They huddled together, the dog between the bear's big paws, for warmth and company. Looking fearfully to right and left, Santa and Onik went up the icy path and through the icy door and into the icy hall of the icy castle.

They saw no sign of a living creature but suddenly from some far away place above their heads came a rumbling, rattling, clattering thunder as if the whole castle was about to crash down on top of them.

His knees shaking, hardly daring to breathe, Onik followed Santa up the winding stairs. Up and up, round and round,

Salineville Class To Give Baskets For Rest Homes

Christmas baskets for two Salineville rest homes were authorized by the Alpha Zeta Sorority at a combined business and social meeting Wednesday night with Mrs. Nina Jean Peterson of Grandview.

A contribution was also authorized for the county foster home children's fund along with baskets and boxes for needy families in the area. A gift exchange was held and a lunch was served. Miss Josephine Shaff will be hostess in January.

Mrs. Henry VanRoven of North St. was hostess to the Neighborhood Club Wednesday night when a gift exchange was held and games were played.

Holiday decorations were used. Lunch was served 12. The next meeting will be Jan. 12 with Mrs. Lela Lewis of North St.

Mrs. Olive Shubert of Lincoln St. was honored at a birthday-anniversary dinner and party Tuesday night at the home of her son, John (Buddy) Schurbert of Canton. A birthday cake, flanked by lighted tapers, centered the table.

Seaman Charles Robert McCloskey has concluded a 14-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCloskey, of E. Main St. Previously stationed at Bainbridge, Md., he has been assigned to the destroyer, McNair at Newport, R. I.

Ex-Salem Policeman Denied Reinstatement

LISBON — William G. Ritchie, former Salem policeman, was denied reinstatement and back pay Thursday afternoon by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp after a two-day trial.

Judge Sharp ruled that Ritchie was guilty of misconduct in that he left his post for a visit, and that he was caught in the act and was given a chance to either resign or face a former charge.

The judge added that his resignation was signed and witnessed, that his police pension fund had been paid and cashed, that he failed to make application in writing to the Civil Service Board within a year after he resigned and that his position was filled.

Ritchie told the court that there had not been any formal hearing on his alleged misconduct and that the former chief had not given his resignation to the Civil Service Commission but had advised him he would "see that he got back on the police force as soon as the heat was off."

Ritchie did not indicate if he would appeal.

Cost Of Mental Care Jumps Again

By PHIL GUNBY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Some one has to pay the bill when a patient is admitted to an Ohio mental institution. Sometimes it's the family, sometimes the state, and sometimes an insurance company.

Whoever picks up the tab will find it a bigger one after the end of this month.

For long-term care, that is, patients in hospitals for the mentally ill and schools for the mentally retarded, the maximum weekly rate goes up Jan. 1 from $21 to $24.50.

That's an increase of almost 100 per cent over the rate six years ago, when it was $12.60 a week.

The maximum at receiving hospitals, where some disposition of the case is made in a relatively short time (either by sending the patient on for longer term care or learning that he responds to treatment in a comparatively brief time), will be $98 a week. It is presently $81.

At the psychiatric institutes, where doctors are receiving advanced training in psychiatric care, the weekly maximum will jump from $105 to $133.

The receiving hospitals and psychiatric institutes are more expensive because the physician-patient and nurse-patient ratios are lower. As the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction suggests, "a week's treatment there may save the patient many months of prolonged treatment if his condition is such that it responds."

Each July, when the previous bookkeeping year has ended, the department figures the average per capita cost for services in the various types of institutions. Then it determines whether an increase in maximum rates is needed.

As a result, there have been increases effective Jan. 1, 1954, 1956, 1958 and 1960.

Members of the family—the husband or wife, father or mother, children or sometimes the guardian—are liable for support of the patient, and the responsible person receives an "order to support" from the state. But this contains the provision that "a lesser amount (than the maximum) may be accepted by the department if collection of the full amount would cause undue hardship."

The percentage of relatives who contribute to support of most of the 36,400 patients varies, but probably is around 40 per cent, the department says. For feeble-minded patients—where the background is often low income circumstances—it is about 11 per cent. Lately, insurance benefits have amounted to close to $700,000 a year. Old age benefits cease, but sometimes patients get other payments which can help pay for their care.

Administering the system is the 55-man Bureau of Support, a section of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

The bureau collected $7,243,088 in the past year, and supervisor Walter S. Burke expects the total to reach eight million in 1960. Up to 90 per cent of the patients coming in now are covered by some kind of insurance, Burke says, and the bureau attempts to assist both patient and insurance company in arriving at a settlement.

Ohio is in a unique position, he says, in that the hospital or county where the patient resides does not collect support payments. Instead, the bureau prepares the bills every four weeks and submits them to the state treasurer for mailing.

Money is paid into the state treasury, and uncollected claims are the responsibility of the attorney general's office.

The formula under which the Mental Hygiene - Correction Department worked out the new rates was established by the legislature 10 years ago. Before that, the rate was a flat $5.50 a week.

Stevenson Sees New Hope For Ending Of Arms Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson says he sees new hope for an end to the arms race with the Soviet Union.

"Once a revolutionary regime leaves behind its adolescent fanaticism," Stevenson writes in the quarterly magazine, Foreign Affairs, "risk and cost become powerful considerations. I believe they exercise genuine influence in Moscow today and that we should do what we can to encourage the trend."

The former Illinois governor and two-time Democratic nominee for the presidency has said he is not a candidate for the 1960 nomination. But Foreign Affairs says Thursday's 7,500-word article is his most comprehensive discussion of foreign affairs since his 1956 campaign.

"I am much encouraged by evidence from many quarters that the Russians are genuinely worried about the political and technical dangers and the cost to the USSR of continuing the arms race indefinitely," he wrote.

He said it appears that "controlled disarmament" was back at the top of the world's agenda "where it belongs." But, he added, the West must maintain a balance of military power with the Communists—for its own safety and to strengthen its hand during disarmament talks.

Stevenson also suggested that the Free World pool its resources for a 200-billion-dollar investment program for underdeveloped nations.

He said the program would last 40 years and "we shall have to coordinate all aspects of the effort with other nations—not only investment but opportunities for trade, international liquidity and so forth the developed nations must all cooperate."

FOP And Associates Plan Joint Installation

First plans were announced today for a joint installation of officers by the Fraternal Order of Police and its civilian affiliate, FOP Associates.

The ceremony will be held Saturday, Jan. 9, at 6:30 p. m. at a dinner meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

Patrolman Charles E. (Bill) Tice will be seated as president of the FOP and Frank Weaver will become president of the FOPA.

Jets Streak Over Spot Wright Made Historic Flight

KILL DEVIL HILLS, N.C. (AP)

—Air Force jets streaked over the sandy beach of Kill Devil Hills Thursday, marking 56 years since man made his first powered flight there.

It was Dec. 17, 1903, when Orville Wright, with a push from his brother Wilbur, piloted their frail craft 120 feet for 12 seconds. It was the first time an engine had pulled a man aloft.

The jets that flashed over the historic spot Thursday were in sharp contrast. Able to fly faster than the speed of sound, they took off only minutes before the fly-over from bases in Ohio, Florida and Virginia.

The traditional First Flight ceremonies were held at the foot of the Wright Brothers Monument.

Courthouse Songfest Will Be Held Monday

LISBON — The annual Christmas songfest for Courthouse employees and visitors will be held Monday at 2:30 p. m. in front of a decorated, 18-foot tree in the main hall.

Edward Patzsch, 1515 Clark Ave., Wellsville, former evangelist and an employee of the county, will be the song leader and in charge of the program.

The songfest has been held annually by county employees for over 10 years and the public is invited. Commissioner R. Max Gard donated the tree.

Glenmoor Pupils Give Program At Meeting Of PTA

Students of the Glenmoor School presented a Christmas program at a meeting of the Parent - Teacher Association Tuesday evening.

During the first part of the program, Grades 1 and 2 recited the Christmas story as told in Luke 2:8-16 and students gave two vocal selections and a recitation.

In the second part, Grades 3 to 6 performed "The Story of Silent Night," by Marie Westervelt. Some 12 pupils acted as narrators during the playlet.

The chorus sang 11 carols. Accompanists included Marjorie Weir, bell soloist, and Bob Shroades, guitar soloist. Grades 3 and 4 presented pantomimes.

The scenery and staging committee included Richard Ball, Leslie Beagle, Janice Blazer, James Cunningham, Ricky Cunningham and Joan Young.

Teachers helping with the program were Miss Eleanor Whitehill, Mrs. Ramona Campbell, Mrs. Lillie Leonard, Mrs. Mary Ruth Bebout, Mrs. Nancy Williams, Mrs. Ella Scott and Mrs. Ruth Armstrong.

Brief business was conducted by Jay Wynn, vice president. Mrs. Thelma Green, ways and means chairman, discussed the proceeds from the sale of Christmas candles.

The attendance banner was won by the fourth grade taught by Mrs. Bebout. Refreshments were served by third grade mothers. Next meeting will be Jan. 19.

Union's Heads Plan Meetings

Leaders of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters have scheduled four meetings in January, including two setting the stage for wage negotiations in the sanitary, tile, porcelain and refractories industries.

The IBOP Executive Board, comprised of the 12 top officers, will hold its annual winter meeting Jan. 12 to review activities in 1959 and talk over plans for 1960. The union's sanitary wage policy committee will convene Jan. 14 in New York City to discuss collective bargaining strategy for all affiliated locals in the sanitary branch of the industry and to plan joint union action in negotiations with management.

Representatives of unions in tile, porcelain and refractories plants will meet with the Executive Board Jan. 18, also to adopt proposals for collective bargaining talks. The IBOP said the propositions of the tile, porcelain and refractories group generally are patterned after those adopted by the sanitary branch.

Meanwhile, members of the constitution revision committee are scheduled to meet with the Executive Board on Jan. 11.

Its members are: Harold Hackett of Local 26 at Kokomo, Ind., Ernest Torrance of Local 12 in East Liverpool, Ralph Glasb of Local 33 in Beaver Falls, Joseph Guadagno of Local 181 in Trenton, N. J., and Ray Votaw of Local 178 in Sebring.

High Court Upholds Manslaughter Count

LISBON — The Ohio Supreme Court has denied a leave to appeal a manslaughter conviction by Orville Ray of Waynesburg, who was found guilty in Columbiana County Common Pleas Court as a result of a traffic death.

Ray, 58, a trucker, was convicted in May 1957 in the death of Mrs. Ada McAfee, 40, of East Rochester, and the 7th District Court of Appeals upheld the conviction.

Chamber Sets Political Class

About 20 have been enrolled for a nine-week "Action Course In Practical Politics", arranged by the Chamber of Commerce, which will open Wednesday, Jan. 6, at the Chamber office.

School Supt. Ralph W. Betts will be discussion leader for the non-partisan training, designed to create an interest in citizens to become more active in the political party of their choice.

The class will meet each Wednesday at 7 a. m. Each session will be two hours. Sponsored nationally by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, the course has the endorsement of officials of the National Committee of both the Republican and the Democratic parties.

The first course is designed to serve as a "pilot" for others that will follow.

The Chamber said community organizations in all parts of the nation "are taking advantage of the opportunity to familiarize themselves with everyday politics."

Anyone interested in enrolling for the course may contact the Chamber office.

Americans bought more new books last year than were owned by all mankind before the 20th century. Book publishers spent nearly $10 million in newspaper advertising in 1958 to whet the literary appetites of the public.

Kiwanians Fete Children At Party

Some 40 city youngsters from needy families were feted by the Kiwanis Club at the annual Christmas party Thursday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Santa Claus distributed presents of clothing, toys and candy to the children, and the Rev. Marc Anton Nocerino related a Christmas story. John Mostoller, minister, led group singing of carols, and Miss JoAnn Vannoy played piano selections.

Key Club members assisting were Walter Lawson, Robert Stewart, Jim English, Gary Hicks and Bill Brokaw. Marion Horger was in charge of the event, assisted by Fred Stevens, Paul Blair, Paul Bloor, B. E. Warner and Phil Irwin.

Rowland Kaufman, president, announced the installation party will be held Jan. 12 at the Country Club. A gift exchange will be held next week.

Transfer Approved For School District

LISBON — Some 30 students in a section south of Columbiana will attend Columbiana schools next September instead of Fairfield-Waterford schools as a result of a transfer approved by the Ohio Board of Education.

A 228-acre area of the Fairfield-Waterford district — part of a township annexation by the village of Columbiana last summer — was ordered merged to the village school district by the state board.

The other 213-acre section of the part annexed was already in the Columbiana school district. The official transfer of funds and students will probably be made around July 1. There are 38 students now in the section.

Newspaperman Gets Post

Midland Chamber To Use Full-Time Secretary Jan. 1

The Board of Directors of the Midland Chamber of Commerce decided at a meeting Thursday to establish its office at the McGeehan Agency, install a telephone and hire a full-time secretary effective Jan. 1.

Edward Robbins of Beaver, former Midland newspaperman, was hired as secretary.

Ballots for the election of 12 directors are expected to be in by Saturday by return mail. They will be turned over to the tellers' committee headed by William Robertson.

Dr. T. S. Boyd, president, said that new directors will be announced at a meeting tentatively set for Jan. 7 when new officers will be elected.

Anthony Martell, committee chairman for the annual membership dinner, said William R. Davlin, secretary of the Pennsylvania State Department of Commerce at Harrisburg, will be the speaker.

The dinner date will be Wednesday, Jan. 27. Hour and place will be announced later.

On a motion by Donald Green, directors voted to write to Council, requesting that welcoming signs at each end of Midland be redecorated or replaced.

At the suggestion of Paul McGeehan, the group also agreed to write the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., thanking it for decorating its blast furnace for the Christmas season.

Other letters were directed to the Board of Education, thanking it for the use of the high school band during the Chamber-sponsored Christmas parade Nov. 28, and to Council for providing firemen and a truck during the event.

Mike Hornick gave a report on the fund for Christmas lighting and Tom Shafer reported on his Retail Division activities.

Food Distribution Set For Needy At Midland

Plans for providing food at Christmas for about 30 or 40 needy families in Midland were completed at a meeting Thursday evening at the McGeehan Agency, Paul McGeehan, reported.

About 15 organizations, including the Salvation Army, are arranging the distribution. Needy families will obtain their food Wednesday.

County Legion Chamber Cites Legal Points Joins Criticism On Unordered Merchandise Of Sen. Young

The Columbiana County American Legion Council has joined other Ohio Legion units in criticizing Sen. Stephen Young for his appearance as a speaker before a group at New York which the Legion claims is a Red-front organization.

A letter sent to Sen. Young by Olan Sanor of East Rochester, adjutant for the county council, declares the county unit expresses "profound dissatisfaction" with the senator for appearing before the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee dinner and "your unwarranted attack on the Hamilton County American Legion Council."

Sen. Young, a member of the Legion, was urged to withdraw from the speech, but he refused and called the Legionnaires behind the request "puffed up patriots."

The county letter reads further, "It is inconceivable that one bearing the title of U. S. Senator would cater to a group tagged as subversives and then attack the American Legion for being good American citizens."

Unordered merchandise that streams through the mails at Christmas-time can be a nuisance—or worse—the Chamber of Commerce said today in listing tips to guide persons who receive items they have not ordered, but which they're asked to pay for.

"The mailings generally are placed on a charitable contribution basis and the recipient is informed that his money will be used for various worthy causes," the Chamber said. "For this season, numerous unordered merchandise promotions are conducted during the Christmas season."

The Chamber said it has received several enquiries lately from puzzled East Liverpool householders who received unordered merchandise. It pointed out:

"Among the items persons may expect to receive in their mail boxes this season are ball-point pens, religious medals, Christmas cards and a variety of small gift items. In some cases, if the recipient fails to respond to the mailing, he may receive a follow-up letter or postcard, urging either that he remit or that the article of merchandise be returned to the sender."

To define the legal rights of persons who receive unordered merchandise, the Chamber passed on a 7-point suggestion from the National Better Business Bureau, with which it is affiliated:

1. Recipients of unordered merchandise are not obliged to acknowledge receipt. No reply of any sort is necessary. Persons receiving such material in the mail should ignore any suggestions in the accompanying literature that a reply is required or necessary.
2. Recipients of such mailings are not required to return the merchandise. Literature accompanying the merchandise and follow-up letters or postcards may hint or suggest that the recipient must either pay for the merchandise or send it back.

3. Unordered merchandise need not be paid for unless it is used. Recipients must understand that if they plan to use the merchandise it must be paid for. However, if they do not want the merchandise, payment is not necessary, provided the merchandise is laid aside and not used.
4. Recipients of unordered merchandise are not required to give it any particular or unusual care. The merchandise should not be abused deliberately, but the recipient is not under obligation to take particular pains for its general upkeep and preservation.
5. Recipients of such merchandise are not required to keep it beyond a reasonable time. After it has kept "a reasonable period of time" it may be thrown away or destroyed.
6. If the sender of the unordered merchandise or his agent calls in person at the home of the recipient and requests the merchandise, the recipient is obliged to surrender it. However, he may demand payment for storage charges before giving up the merchandise.
7. When unordered merchandise is mailed by a charitable organization, recipients who believe in giving wisely may wish to learn essential facts about the organization before making a remittance. Specific information can be obtained from the Chamber office.

New Fire Truck Delay Explained

A delay in the delivery of the new Lawrenceville fire truck, due indirectly to the effects of the steel strike, was reported at a meeting of the volunteer firemen Thursday night.

An order from the Sutphen Associates of Columbus since early fall, the truck will be delivered in January instead of this year, as originally planned.

Firemen authorized use of a heavy Ford chassis instead of a GMC chassis because delivery of the GMC chassis would be delayed longer because of the shortage of steel due to the strike.

Firemen placed lights on a Christmas tree in front of the fire station. The tree and homemade decorations were supplied by the Cherokee 4-H Club.

Firemen will be host to the Tri-State Firemen's Association Jan. 26. Lawrence Haun, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be Jan. 7.

Scouts To Collect Foods For Needy

Newell Boy Scouts will make a door-to-door canvass of the community Saturday to collect food and donations for distribution to needy families for Christmas.

Scouts will be transported through Newell on a fire truck, Chief Carl Durham of the volunteer fire department reported.

The food will be prepared as Christmas baskets, while residents may donate money for the poor instead of giving groceries, Durham said.

The project is being co-sponsored by American Legion Post 114 and the Lions Club. Harry Messenheimer is chairman for the Legion and Joe Jester for the Lions.

Registration Continues For Kent State Center

Students desiring to register for the winter quarter of the East Liverpool Center of Kent State University may sign at Supt. Ralph W. Betts' office in the high school, it was announced today.

Classes for the next quarter will begin Jan. 6 with 6 courses expected to be offered. They include two each in English and history, introduction to business and general psychology.

Registration for the next quarter was conducted Thursday night but the number who signed still isn't known. However, authorities said registration in extension classes in the winter generally is slightly less than in other quarters. There were about 90 enrolled for the fall quarter.

Election Is Postponed By Glenmoor Firemen

Nomination and election of new officers was postponed until next month when Glenmoor firemen met Thursday night in the fire station. Twenty attended.

Devine Banks, president, said the election is planned at a meeting Jan. 7 in the fire hall.

The auxiliary, and volunteer firemen will co-sponsor a Christmas party for youngsters Wednesday at the fire station.

Children To Get Treats At Chester Saturday

Santa Claus will distribute treats to Chester youngsters from a fire truck Saturday afternoon starting at 1.

The truck, using a public address system playing carols instead of sounding its siren, will begin the tour of all streets of the city in the West End.

Sponsored by the volunteer firemen, Santa will visit homes of shut-in children after the distribution. Don Hissam, chairman, and parents of youngsters who are ill may contact firemen.

The annual treat sponsored by the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held tonight at 6 at the City Hall.

Cruiser To Be Bought

NEW CUMBERLAND — Bids will be received at the City Building on or before Monday for a new 1960 police cruiser. Mrs. Mary L. Wagner, clerk, reported.

New School's Opening Set At Pughtown

A $400,000 elementary school building at Pughtown will open Jan. 4 for pupils returning to classes from the annual Christmas vacation, Robert H. Hall, superintendent of Hancock County schools said today.

Workmen will apply the finishing touches to the interior of the new 14-classroom building during the holiday vacation. Construction was started early last summer.

Some $50,000 in new classroom equipment will be installed during the two-week vacation.

The building will serve 400 students, Supt. Hall said.

Approximately 184 pupils will be transferred to Pughtown from Chester elementary school, 126 from a grade school in New Cumberland and 98 from the Pughtown area.

The new building will help alleviate overcrowded classroom conditions caused by a yearly boost in enrollment. Fourteen teachers will instruct pupils at Pughtown, including 2 to be employed by the County Board of Education. R. O. Stevens will continue as principal.

The school replaces a two-room building presently serving Pughtown elementary pupils. Funds for construction of the building came from the passage of a $1 million bond issue in a special election in May 1958.

Auto Theft Prisoner Receives Probation

LISBON — Kenneth McVay, 24, of Lisbon, who pleaded guilty to theft of a car owned by Ralph Stumpo of Leetonia last May, was placed on five years probation by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp Thursday afternoon.

McVay was indicted along with William E. House, 21, of Pritchard Ave. who is in Mansfield Reformatory for same offense.

McVay must be of good behavior and obey all laws, obtain steady employment, make restitution for all damages to Stumpo's car and the insurance company and must be at home at midnight unless working.

Regulations Thwart Efforts To Get Children Yule Wishes

By DICK EBEN
Dayton Daily News
DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — "Gee, the President is away; that means we can't write to Ike," disillusioned Gabriel Dotto, 7, told his brother, Peter, 10.
The two had learned that a stone wall of federal regulations is thwarting their father in his attempt to get them the only Christmas present they want—American citizenship.

Said Henry Beziat, examiner for the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service at Cincinnati: "We have our rules and procedures. I just don't see the urgency in these cases."
According to Beziat, it will take at least 60 days to complete naturalization action for the Italian-born Dotto boys.
At best, he said, the time could be cut in half—by waiving a 30-day waiting period after petitions are filed. "But we are authorized to do this only for 'reasons of national urgency,' and I don't feel that situation exists here."
The somewhat flustered Beziat added, "I appreciate the sentimentality involved in Mr. Dotto's request, but we just can't set aside our instructions."
Peter and Gabriel decided on their unusual Christmas wish last week when their father became an American citizen at a hearing in U.S. District Court here.
"Before that they had wanted a big telescope so that they could study the moon," Dotto said. "But now that doesn't rate in comparison to citizenship."

Dotto, chief research engineer at Dayton Steel Foundry Co., came to this country in August, 1954. His wife, Renata, arrived the following spring. She will be eligible for U. S. citizenship in April.
A third Dotto boy, 23-month-old Maurizio, is an American citizen since he was born in this country.
Dotto has mailed naturalization papers for the two older boys to Beziat's Cincinnati office.
"I'd be ready to go to Washington, if I thought it would help," he said.
Then the father added reflectively: "But maybe I'll have to buy a telescope, after all."

New Fund Added
CLEVELAND (AP) — A new $800,000 fund is being added to the Cleveland Foundation. The fund was donated by Mrs. Mabel Breckenridge Wason. Widow of a businessman, she died last year. Mrs. Wason directed that income from the fund be divided among five charitable organizations.

Cocoteau Offers Preview Of 'La Dietrich'

Certainly no stimulus is needed to excite interest in Marlene Dietrich's first television appearance, a $250,000 production due this season.

But there comes to our attention what one might call a "preview" of Miss Dietrich's show, and it threatens to leave the populace, particularly the male part of it, on the rack of anticipation. The "preview" is the work of Jean Cocoteau, France's jack-of-all-arts, who witnessed Miss Dietrich's performance in Paris' Etoile Theater, virtually the same act now being filmed for television by Orson Welles.

SO MUCH SO that following the performance he was moved to set forth his impressions. There is a touch of the surrealist in M. Cocoteau's word painting of "Marlene," but it is dramatic and eloquent.

It reads, in part: "Marlene, like children who play horse, rode into legend on a chair turned backward. Those who have had the luck to come unawares upon her riding on her chair and have heard her sing, possess a memory of a moment of perfection."

"And why was this perfection not merely a dazzling shower of sex appeal? Because, if Marlene were to enter the realm of the striptease and go all the way, there would remain only her true essence—a heart of gold."

"FOR THIS BIRD of paradise, this vessel with sails spread to the wind, whose feathers, plumes, and furs seem to grow from her body, is a force such as hardly exists elsewhere, a goodness in action which does not hesitate to cross oceans to render service to others."

"It would be ridiculous for me to go on and speak further about her. Far better to see for yourself that creature whose very name begins with a caress and ends in the crack of a whip: Marlene... Dietrich!"

There is more to M. Cocoteau's pulsating tribute, but enough... last there be a male exodus to the Etoile in Paris, where La Dietrich still is dazzling the onlookers.

HEADLINES notwithstanding, Dick Clark has the interest of a blue chip sponsor for a slightly revamped version of his "World of Talent," which ends its current run on ABC Sunday. The sponsor proposes prime evening time slot and suggests a return to the format's original title, "This Is Show Business."

Producer Hubbel Robinson plans to run repeats of the best of "Starline" shows this summer, which sounds like an excellent idea. Many of the "Starline" shows bear repeating...

CHM Arquette's "Hobby Lobby" has been retitled "The Charley Weaver Show," in case you haven't noticed, and the format also has undergone a change. The program no longer deals with hobbies. As Arquette says, "We just couldn't come up with enough hobbies to fill each week's show." "Death Valley Days" producers located the 84-year-old widow of Dodge City Marshal William Matthew Tilghman, and employed her as technical adviser for an upcoming episode based on her husband's life. Mrs. Tilghman, recently described as the "last living link with the Old West," takes a dim view of the TV approach to Bat Masterson and Wyatt Earp, who were her husband's personal friends. She calls them "sissies untruthful in their characterizations."

HOW MANY NETWORK television stars are there who have been in the same time spot on the same network for the same sponsor for at least four years?

Nine in all, according to Television Age, which lists them as follows: Jimmy Powers, fights (1949); Walter Cronkite, shows (1953); Marvin Miller, "The Millionaire" (1954); Ronald Reagan, "Theater" (1954); "Lassie" (1954); James Arness on "Gunsmoke" (1955); Alfred Hitchcock, "Hitchcock Presents" (1955); Red Skelton (1955); and Lawrence Welk (1955).

9 Convicted In Fraud Case

DENVER (AP)—A U.S. District Court jury Thursday convicted nine men associated with the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind) of conspiring to defraud the government.

Judge Alfred A. Arjay allowed the defendants to remain free on $5,000 bond each pending defense motions.

Telford Taylor, chief defense lawyer, said he will ask that the verdict be set aside. Failing that, he said, he will appeal the case to the 10th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals here. Judge Arjay set Jan. 18 as the deadline for any defense motions.

The convicted men each face a possible maximum penalty of 5 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

They went on trial here Oct. 26 on charges of conspiring to file false non-Communist affidavits with the National Labor Relations Board in order that the union could make use of the agency's services in labor matters.

The convicted men are Maurice Travis of Richmond, Calif., Irving Dichter of Denver, Raymond Dennis of Cleveland, James Durkin of Chicago, Chase Powers of Spokane, Wash., Albert Skinner of Salt Lake City, Jesse Van Camp of Danville, Ill., Charles H. Wilson of Columbia, Tenn., and Harold Sanderson of Denver.

City Moose Lodge Donations To Aid Aged And Young

Because of the "Christmas In October" party held by East Liverpool Moose Lodge 642, Christmas will be brighter for youngsters at Mooseheart, the children's home sponsored by the lodge at Aurora, Ill., and at Moosehaven, a home for the aged at Orange Park, Fla.

Mrs. Pearl Wheatley, chairman of the early "Christmas" party of the local chapter, packed the toys, books, clothing and other items for children at Mooseheart and clothing, toilet articles, to-bacco and other gifts for the oldsters at Moosehaven. The gifts will be distributed Christmas Eve.

Assisting Mrs. Wheatley were Mrs. Betty Kilmer, Mrs. Evelyn Balser, Mrs. Mildred Springer and Mrs. Mary Reed, senior regent of the Women of the Moose.

Hundreds of Moose Chapters held the "Christmas In October" parties. There are more than 600 youngsters at Mooseheart, which is maintained for children of deceased members by the Loyal Order of Moose.

Music Program Given At Junior High Assembly

A musical program was presented for the students and faculty of East Junior High School by the music department at a Christmas assembly this afternoon.

The program was directed by Miss Burdette Bowman, vocal instructor, and Vincent Maola, band director.

The Rev. C. Howard Canon of the Oakland Free Methodist Church and president of the Ministerial Association, spoke on "A Unique Invasion." His talk continued a custom started three years ago to have a clergyman speak on the real meaning of Christmas.

The program was opened by the concert band playing a collection of Christmas carols entitled "Christmas Season" and "Danse Pavane."

In its first appearance of the year, the ninth grade choir sang "Winter Wonderland," "White Christmas" and "Silver Bell."

Following Rev. Canon's address, a girls' ensemble sang a Ukrainian carol, "Carol of the Bells."

The program ended with the combined seventh, eighth and ninth grade choirs singing "Joy to the World," "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," "The First Noel," "O, Little Town of Bethlehem," "O, Come All Ye Faithful" and closing with the traditional "Silent Night."

Salem Girl Wins In Dress Contest

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Out of 28 competitors, three girls from Wauseon, Salem and Pleasantville took top honors in the Ohio Make-It-Yourself-with-Wool Contest.

A wool challis dress won first place Thursday in the senior division for Susan Hoy, 18, of Wauseon.

Elizabeth Bennett, 17, of Salem, placed first in the junior division with an ensemble of gold, gray and brown.

Mary Ella Rowles of Pleasantville (Fairfield County) was selected as wearing the most fashionable ensemble—a reversible red and black coat.

Miss Hoy and Miss Bennett will receive expenses-paid trips to national contests in San Antonio, Tex., in January.

The 26 district winners were selected from nearly 1,000 girls in the state who participated in the contest. All had to make their own garments out of 100 per cent wool.

Some Areas Still Neglected

Improvement Pointed Out In Mental Health Program

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Jay W. Collins of Cleveland says there are 10 areas of improvement in Ohio's mental health program but that significant areas are still being neglected.

Collins, executive director of the Euclid-Glenville Hospital who made a special survey for the state last May, told Gov. Michael V. DiSalle Thursday that Ohio needs a realistic approach to the problem of recruiting skilled personnel.

He referred to a need for physicians, part-time psychiatrists, social workers and training of other employees. Recruitment of nurses showed the only signs of forward movement, Collins said.

This was Collins' fifth report to DiSalle following his survey.

Collins said he was pleased to note DiSalle's plan for an inventory of the state's 38,000 mental institution patients.

However, he commented that reports from mental health officials indicate there is no plan to give a physical examination to all patients in the near future. Only a sampling will be taken to determine the extent of the problem, he said.

Road Construction Pacts In Ohio Below That Of 1958

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Despite the two biggest bid-openings this month, the State Highway Department has placed only half as much road construction work under contract this year as in 1958.

The total last year was $381,100,000. Figuring in engineering costs, acquisition of right-of-way and other expenses, the figure for 1959 is about $192,000,000.

The department prefers to use a figure of $277,935,000, arguing that $85,935,000 worth of contracts, on which bids were opened late in 1958 during the administration of Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill were executed this year.

By "executed," the department means it had to buy right-of-way this year before work could begin on the 1958 projects.

But whichever figure is used, Ohio did not hit the $300,000,000 total originally programmed for this year. Reduction of federal aid allocations, Congress' delay in providing the needed federal money, and a directive of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads prohibiting the placing of federally-assisted projects under contract without acquisition of right-of-way are given as reasons.

For 1960, the Highway Department hopes for a 250-to-275 million dollar program.

In 14 bid-openings of 1958 before this month, the largest (June 30) had put $15,868,091 worth of road work under contract.

But the department finished strong—After the Public Roads Bureau gave the green light to commit federal dollars—with four

Support Cases Climb To 107

LISBON — A total of 107 reciprocal support cases have been handled by Atty. Charles Pike, assistant county prosecutor, according to Prosecutor G. William Brokaw.

In the first 11 months, a total of $8,844.38 has been paid. Of this amount $2,227.84 went to other states and $6,617.34 was paid for support in the county.

The Reciprocal Support Act went into effect about 2 years ago. If any person fails to support his children or leaves and his address is known, the court orders the state in which he is a resident to begin paying. If he doesn't pay, he can be sentenced for contempt of court by the state in which he resides.

Before the support act, some states would not extradite for non-support and there was no way to make the subject support his children.

Under the new law, the prosecutor's office must handle incoming cases as well as initiate county cases to other states. The results have been very satisfying, Brokaw said.

States co-operating at present are Florida, California, New York, Illinois, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Arizona, West Virginia, Maine, New Mexico, Nevada, Massachusetts and Michigan, Brokaw said.

During Shopping Rush
CIRCULVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A power failure hit this city Thursday evening during the Christmas shopping rush, causing a heavy traffic jam and closing all stores, police reported.

Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. officials said a cable exploded at a transformer, cutting service.

The blackout hit at 6:01 p.m. Power was restored at 7:29 p.m. Foot patrolmen aided merchants in closing stores. The resulting traffic crush pressed all available police into use.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My boy friend is in the service several hundred miles away. He writes often. His spelling and English are so poor no one but me could figure out what he means. I know he was mentally slow but I didn't realize how bad it was until I saw it in writing.

In the presence of others he's made such glaring errors as "Isaac Walton's law of gravity," and the Mississippi OCEAN. When he said he couldn't understand how the vice president found time to write a daily column I learned he was confusing Richard Nixon with George Dixon.

I'm very fond of this fellow but I wonder if I could be happy with someone so far below my intellectual level. He's good-looking, sweet and wants to marry me. Frankly, I'm—ASHAMED OF HIM.

Dear Ashamed: If you're "Ashamed of Him" now, I promise after marriage you would find life unbearable. Marriages work out best between individuals who have a multiplicity of things in common. Minimally, this means education, home background and religious training.

Additional schooling could help to improve his English and grammar but his general level of knowledge (as evidenced by the errors you pointed out) indicates that this fellow is unbelievably ignorant.

Shackled By Family
Dear Ann: My husband and I are only children. We have been married three years and have two little boys. Both sets of parents live within walking distance of our home.

Since we have no brothers or sisters, our parents live for us and their grandchildren. In the last two years my husband has had two wonderful opportunities to improve our financial status and advance in the firm where he is employed.

Both his folks and mine have told us they would be heartbroken if we moved away. They say "money isn't everything."

Again we have a chance to do better and again they are begging us not to go. This is a rather small town and his chances for advancement here are limited. What is your advice?—TORN BETWEEN.

Dear Torn: Money may not be everything but there's more than money involved here. Independence, and the freedom to make decisions based on what is best for YOU and your family is what is at stake.

It's unfair and shortsighted of your parents and his to place this burden of guilt on you. By all means urge your husband to accept the opportunity for advancement. The grandparents can visit you and you can visit them.

Teen-Age Terror

Dear Ann: Our 13-year-old has been causing us heartache. He's been caught smoking twice in the last six months. We've tried to reason with him but it doesn't work. Another thing—he can look a person in the eye and tell the biggest lies you ever heard. We've never punished this boy severely because we don't believe in it. Do you think maybe he needs a good switching?

Please suggest something. I'm beside myself.—CONCERNED.

Dear: This boys needs more attention, more affection—and punishment that means something. Apparently the "talkings" are not effective.

Deprive him of something he enjoys. I don't recommend switching. A good smack in the right place at the right time for a younger child is fine but this boy is too old.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

College President Sees Fall Of Communism—Like Nazism

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Dr. Nelson Glueck, president of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion of Cincinnati and New York, said today that Communism must eventually fall, as did Nazism, because there can be "no permanent power without freedom."

Dr. Glueck addressed the 670-member graduating class of Ohio State University at autumn commencement exercises in St. John Arena here.

"The miserable inequities and brutalities we deplore in countries like Russia and Red China are direct concern to us," he said in his prepared remarks.

"They believe, and I think correctly, that the world cannot exist half slave and half free and (they) are determined to make it all slave."

"Our concern," he went on, "is the survival and advancement of civilization, the preservation and progress of humanity."

"The issue is vast and urgent and universal. It involves all of mankind.

"Let us affirm and reaffirm that the Bible, the Magna Carta, the Bill of Rights are dangerous—dangerous to despotism, dangerous to the toleration of human indignities, dangerous to the denial of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

"In the knowledge and acceptance of the principles and imperatives of these documents," he concluded, "we shall find our surest strengths, even if, as individuals, whole hosts of us may perish in their protection."

Save the giblets from broiler-fryers and when you have enough of them use along with wing tips for stock. The giblets themselves may then be put through a food chopper and mixed with mayonnaise, pickle relish, salt and pepper for a sandwich spread. Mashed hard-cooked eggs are also a good addition.

Hearing Set Today On Strike Petition

CINCINNATI (AP) — Common Pleas Judge Otis R. Hess was to conduct a hearing today on a petition by the Vulcan Manufacturing Co. to force 132 striking steelworkers to go back to work.

The men, members of the United Steelworkers Union, have been on strike since Dec. 8.

In asking that they be ordered back to work, J. Mack Swigert, attorney for the company, contended the work stoppage is in violation of a no-strike contract. Union officials have said the strike is unauthorized.

Swigert asserted the walkout resulted from a supervisor's complaint of an employee's "excessive" use of the telephone during working hours.

Rep. Scherer Comments On Young Attack

WASHINGTON (AP) — "They (the Communists) select people in high places whenever possible . . . many times these individuals do not know that they are serving the Communist cause," said Rep. Gordon H. Scherer (R-Ohio).

Scherer's remark came in commenting Thursday on the recent verbal attack on him by Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio).

Both Scherer and the Hamilton County (Cincinnati) American Legion Council were attacked by Young for criticizing the senator's address this week to the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

The ECLC has been cited as a Communist front by congressional committees, Scherer and the Legion contended. The organization is not on the attorney general's list of subversive organizations.

"Sen. Young's intemperate and unfair attack on the American Legion and me serves a useful purpose," Scherer said.

"The record over the years shows that every individual or organization that ever effectively fought the Communist apparatus has been the subject of an unrelenting and vicious attack by the Communist conspiracy," he said.

Scherer said the Communists often select "other people to do their dirty work." He did not specifically say in his statement whom he meant by "other people."

Young's office said the senator has gone to Europe on Senate Space Committee business.

Could Have Speeded It Up Rockefeller Charges Ike Is Slow On Desegregation

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says, by implication, that the Eisenhower administration could have done more to speed up desegregation of the public schools.

He expressed this belief in Texas as he neared the end of a political fact-finding tour through seven states today.

"I won't be satisfied until we achieve our goal," he said. He defined the goal as "ultimate equality for all."

In news conferences in the South, reporters questioned Rockefeller closely about his opinions on the bitter controversy over the schools.

He said he is not satisfied with the pace of desegregation. At the same time he counseled patience and said "understanding" is needed. He said parties of interest should be brought together.

"A great deal can be done by a group sitting down informally, not in the glare of public attention."

The following was an exchange in one press conference.

"Q. Do you feel that progress made since the Supreme Court decision has been at a satisfactory rate?"

"A. I suppose satisfactory would depend on somebody's definition of the word. It's not satisfactory in terms of our goals of ultimate equality for all."

"Q. Are you satisfied then with the progress?"

"A. No. I won't be satisfied until we get our goal but I understand why in many areas why the pace hasn't been faster and I think understanding is a very important factor in this field."

Answering another question, Rockefeller said "I think the executive, wherever it can, can bring together parties in cities and states, citizens who are in touch with these questions, educators and so forth."

In such conditions, he said, "people can jointly seek the ways to achieve what I think we all have accepted as a national objective."

200 At PTA Event In Newell School
Some 200 attended the Christmas musical program presented at the meeting of the Jefferson Parent-Teacher Association Wednesday night at the Newell school.

The program was directed by Mrs. John McDevitt and Miss Dorothy Talbot.

Christmas selections were played by the junior band of 29 pieces and a 23-voice chorus presented the story of the Nativity in song.

Devotions were led by Linda Sebold and Bruce Wheatley, president, conducted business. The attendance banner was won by the sixth grade taught by Tony Lavene.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Richard Haynes, Mrs. Carl Durham, Mrs. Lester Anderson, Mrs. Wheatley, Mrs. Harry Springer, Mrs. Donald DeLong, and Mrs. George Gogol.

9-Foot Painting Of Wrights Now In Ohio House

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 9-by-12-foot oil painting of Ohio's famous Wright brothers, Orville and Wilbur, now decorates the State House.

Unveiled on the 56th anniversary of the Dayton inventors' pioneer-powered airplane flight at Kitty Hawk, N. C., on Dec. 17, 1903, the painting was done by Dwight Mitchler. It depicts some of the Wrights' accomplishments. Mitchler was authorized by the Ohio Legislature to do the painting after a contest staged by the Ohio Historical Society among 30 artists for the honor.

Mrs. Mitchler, of Athens, stood beside her husband during the unveiling ceremonies. Gov. Michael V. DiSalle was represented by his press secretary, Gerald Poston.

Rookie Bob Allison of the Washington Senators hit 21 of his 30 homers against first division teams.

The Sports Potters Seek Second Victory At Warren

Petchel's Move No Surprise . . .

It didn't come as a surprise when Coach John Petchel resigned as head football coach at Midland earlier this week.

While talking to John last August on the practice field, he said this would be his last season.

His reasons, as outlined in his resignation, were that "coaching has become less enjoyable with each passing year and I feel that this lessening of enthusiasm in my coaching may directly or indirectly affect the athletic development of boys placed under my supervision."

His resigning brought to an end a brilliant coaching career and one of the most successful on the district gridirons.

Out of 87 games played in nine years, Petchel's teams won 61 and lost only 19 and tied 7.

His percentage of winning is over 70 percent, a mark that few coaches today can claim.

When a Petchel team played it was well equipped fundamentally, and even in losing Midland showed sound tactics.

Football isn't based on wins and losses alone. As John explained earlier this season, "We are proud that we provide to boys of ability the opportunity of continuing their education at a high level."

Since Petchel's first season in 1951, 37 athletic scholarships have been received by football players at Lincoln High School in Midland.

This year at least four or five more are expected to win scholarships to continue their education.

Just a few of the boys who went on to college from Midland: Ivan Tonic, Henry Suffoletta and John Flara, all of Pitt; Vince Palyan, Dayton; Bob Hibbard, Tennessee; John Migliore, Boston U.; Joe Schulte, Marquette. And there were many others.

We are sorry to see John leave the coaching ranks, where he proved so successful, and wish him good luck as he continues in the teaching profession.

As to his successor, the feeling in Midland is that Charles Polce, an assistant to Petchel for nine years, will be the next football mentor. We feel that it would be a wise choice.

Football League In Making . . .

WARREN OFFICIALS have come up with the idea of a new football league for teams in the Northeastern Ohio.

East Liverpool has been contacted as a possible member and has expressed interest in such a league.

Other teams being considered are Warren, Canton McKinley, Barberton and Mansfield.

The loop is still in the planning stage, with Coach Gene Slaughter of Warren taking the initiative on the formation.

THE POTTERS' 1960 football schedule may show two spots to be filled. Merrill Hall, athletic director, said that Youngstown Ray-ector will probably fill the date left open by Warren.

Toronto officials have asked to be dropped from schedule in 1960 even though it was there home game.

Toronto says its gridirons suffered more injuries in the Potter game than in any other played during the season.

Toronto, a small Class "AA" school, has been gradually lightening its schedule.

The Red Knights were scheduled for the next to last game of the 1960 season and will leave Hall with the job of finding a replacement.

How About A Holiday Tourney? . . .

ANY AMBITIOUS civic organization in the area scouting around for a project to sponsor might be interested in a proposal for an invitational holiday basketball tournament next winter.

With interest in high school sports in the Ohio Valley extremely high, the opportunity to undertake such a project seems especially worthwhile.

Adequate talent and facilities for such a tournament are plainly lacking. Only promotion is lacking.

The natural teams to select, of course, would be East Liverpool; the two games. We'll come right back again and predict a split in the pair this weekend.

We look for East Liverpool to get past Warren tonight, but lose to Canton Saturday.

Wellsville is our choice by a wide margin over Mingo Junction, while Rochester gets the nod over Chester and Midland over McKees Rocks.

The United-Fairfield-Waterford battle will be close, but we'll stick with United.

Other selections are Leontonia over Beaver Local, Beaver to half South Side, Salineville over Augusta, Lisbon to nip Carrollton and Salem to bury Columbiana.

Saturday, we will stick with Wellsville again over Northwest. United to whip Southeast, Stanton Local to defeat Hopedale and East Palestine over Leontonia.

DUE TO an error by the Associated Press Farrell (Pa.) defeated Youngstown Ursuline 90-33 Tuesday. Wednesday's paper had Ursuline winning.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

WITH OFFERS pouring in from around the nation, Bob Mackall, the Potters' brilliant quarterback this past season is leaning towards Miami University of Florida.

He hasn't made his mind up definitely, but the Florida school seems the most inviting at present.

BOBBY DAWSON, former Potter cage star, is working his way up to a starting position with the Bowling Green University five.

He was cited for his fine defensive work and adept ball handling in the contest with Bradley last week.

JIM POTTS, who was a second string quarterback with the undefeated Bowling Green football squad, is home for the holidays along with Bill McGillivray, who was head manager for the Falcons during the gridiron season.

Powerful Utah Cagers Gain 5th Straight Win

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Jack Gardner, the milk-swilling Utah coach, may finally have the makings for that national championship team he's been after since he got into the college basketball business 23 years ago.

Even when his Utes look bad they are managing to win easily—like Thursday night when they scored their fifth straight victory, 88-69 over a Washington State club that had won four of five previous starts.

They're averaging 90 points a game in those five triumphs—two over Wichita, and one apiece against Los Angeles State, New Mexico State and Washington State—and right now rank as the third highest scoring outfit among major schools.

The difference this time around could be a mobile, big center Gardner's otherwise strong teams have lacked since he shifted from Kansas State to Utah in 1963.

The newcomer, joining a handful of holdovers from last year's skyline championship team, is a 6-6 sophomore from Los Angeles with the cast-miss name of Billy (Orethilla) McGill. So far Foothills has started only one game as Gardner lets him feel his way into big time competition, but he's still managed to score 102 points—a 20.4 average.

Four unbeaten, De Paul, Missouri, Michigan State, and Texas A&M, added another victory; Dayton spilled Drake from the all-winning list, and one of the nation's outstanding shooters Al Butler of Niagara, put on quite a one-man show in other Thursday features.

DePaul won its sixth straight, 77-44 over Ohio U. as little Howie Carl scored 22 points. Missouri (6-0) trailed at the half 27-23 before coming on to crush Rice 77-48. Michigan State (3-0) went into double overtime and beat Nebraska 63-60 on Horace Walker's jump shot at the buzzer. Texas A&M (5-0) beat Houston for the second time, 64-62.

Dayton, led by Frank Case's 18 points, snapped Drake's four-game win streak, 71-44. Butler, a 6-2 jumping jack junior, had 26 of his 34 points in the second half and four in an overtime period as Niagara slipped Georgetown (DC) 61-50. Butler's jumper won it with four seconds left.

10 Games Set On Local Cage Scene Tonight

East Liverpool travels to Warren, Midland will be shooting for its sixth straight victory and Wells-ville goes after its third in a row at Mingo Junction in features of a 10-game cage schedule tonight.

The Potters will attempt to get back on the winning side after defeating Alliance and losing to Wellsville last weekend.

District Cage Card Tonight

East Liverpool at Warren
Wellsville at Mingo Junction
McKees Rocks at Midland
Fairfield-Waterford at United
Beaver at South Side
Beaver Local at Leontonia
Augusta at Salineville
Lisbon at Carrollton
Columbiana at Salem

Saturday
East Liverpool at Canton McKinley
Wellsville at Northwest (Ohio)
United at Southeast
Hopedale at Stanton Local
Leontonia at East Palestine

The Potter-Warren game will get started about 8:30, with the two reserve teams clashing at 7 p. m.

After the contest tonight at Warren, East Liverpool goes to Canton Saturday for a meeting with the McKinley Bulldogs in the second game of a doubleheader at the Canton Memorial Fieldhouse.

That game will get under way about 8:45 following the New Philadelphia-Canton Lehman tilt.

Coach Jim Harris said he plans no changes in the lineup and will stick with his five veterans. The lineup for tonight will read, Bob Mackall and Craig Burlick at forwards, Ray Bigelow at center and Kenny Cunningham and Kenny Miller at guards.

Warren has split in two games, defeating Champion and losing a close battle to Newton Falls.

Its big guns are Jack Curington, who has scored 34 points in two games, and Paul Warfield, a terrific rebounder.

McKees Rocks invades the Midland gym where the Leopards go after their sixth straight exhibition victory.

The Leopards were never any better this season than last Tuesday night when they fired an amazing 55 per cent from the field.

Midland was waltzed through all five opponents, with Ambridge the closest battle, 53-44.

Coach Jack McDewitt's Wellsville five will be busy this weekend, traveling to Mingo Junction tonight, then making a trip to the Canton area to meet Northwest on Saturday.

Northwest, located at Canal Fulton near Canton, is coached by the former Wellsville cage star and mentor, Tink Healey.

The Tigers will be shooting for their third straight tonight after losing the opener to Midland.

Chester is at home tonight for the first time this season and meets a team which has never defeated the Panthers.

Since Chester and Rochester have been meeting in the last decade the Panthers own every victory.

Coach Max Tuttle's forces are fresh from a close victory over New Cumberland Tuesday.

South Side will have its hands full tonight meeting a tall Beaver club. The Rams are 3-3 for the season.

A close contest is predicted when Fairfield-Waterford and United meet at Hanoverton tonight.

In other contests, Beaver Local will go after its second victory in five starts at Leontonia, while Augusta visits Salineville, and Lisbon goes to Carrollton.

Salem, runners-up for the state title last season, opens the 1960-61 campaign at home entertaining Class "A" Columbiana.

Five games Saturday, which round out a big week of basketball activity, find East Liverpool at Canton McKinley, Wellsville visiting Northwest, United at Southeast, Stanton Local entertaining Hopedale and Leontonia at East Palestine.

Junior Church League Plans To Open On Jan. 9

The Junior Church basketball league, sponsored by the YMCA, will open the 1960 season on Saturday Jan. 9.

Entry blanks are available for managers who are planning to enter teams. The deadline for entries is Jan. 2.

The loop will be divided into two divisions—a collegiate and intercollegiate league—with the teams in each division playing a round-robin schedule. The two winners will meet in a playoff to decide the league championship.

100 Honor Midland High Football Team At Dinner

About 100 attended a dinner Thursday evening honoring the Midland Lincoln High School football team and coaching staff.

The affair was sponsored by the St. Anthony Club.

Ivan Tonic of Midland, Pitt quarterback, was a guest and brought with him Serafino Fas-

They are shown holding team and individual awards won the past season. Smith is holding the Geneva Alumni Association trophy for Beaver County Class A Champions and the Martell award as lineman of the year.

Gerra is holding a plaque presented by the Leopard Booster Club for being Mid-Western Athletic Conference Class "A" Champ.

Russell holds the Mid-Western Athletic Conference trophy presented during an assembly Thursday by Fenton Farley, Rochester High School principal and conference president. Russell also holds his individual trophy, the Dave Alston Memorial Award, for being the outstanding back. It was awarded by Migliore Ford Sales.

Smith and Russell received their awards Dec. 3 during a Rotary Club dinner honoring the team and coaches. The Booster Club plaque was awarded at a dinner for the team Wednesday evening.

Midland has won the Geneva trophy twice during the three years of its existence. A third win will give the school permanent possession. The MAAC trophies are permanent and the school has won both in the two years of existence of the conference.

Atty. Robert Masters was toastmaster.

Remarks were made by Burgess Ell G. Corak; Fr. John Corbett, assistant pastor of Presentation Catholic Church; James E. Ross of Beaver, Democratic County Commissioner - elect; Tonic; John Shovlin, vice president of the Board of Education and athletic chairman; Petchel and Uccellini.

Petchel, whose resignation was accepted Monday evening during a board meeting, said that he is only giving up one subject—football—and plans to go on teaching other subjects as a teacher in Midland.

He said the school will lose 16 senior players, but will have seven juniors and 19 good sophomore prospects for next season.

Petchel introduced team members and Charles Polce, line coach; Paul Farnan, reserve coach; John Wilson, junior high coach and George Ordich, also of the junior high.

Other guests introduced borough councilmen, including Steve Gernuska, president, and members of the School Board, including, Leslie B. Roach, president.

Rudolph Presutti is president of the club. Uccellini was in charge of plans for the evening.

East Junior High Whips Westgate For 3rd Win

East Junior High jumped off to a 15-4 lead at the end of the first quarter, then coasted to a 41-36 victory over Westgate in their annual city series rivalry Thursday at the Westgate gym.

The victory was the third in three games for Coach Dom Cas-clo's team while Westgate dropped its second in three starts.

After gaining a seven-point edge at the end of the first period, East Junior moved the count to 25-16 at halftime, then continued to outscore Westgate for a 33-20 margin after three quarters.

Two East cagers shared scoring honors for the night with Frank McComas and John Sparks pitching in 12 points each for the winners.

Their scoring combined with the fine rebounding of Ed Prentice proved the big difference in the victory.

Bruce McCoy with eight points paced Westgate in its losing cause.

The same two teams meet later this season at East Junior High.

TV Audience To Get Look

Liberty And Bluebonnet Bowls Set For Saturday

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

Three college football bowl games - the Liberty, Bluebonnet and Holiday - are on tap (Saturday) with a national television audience getting a look-see at the post-season action.

Alabama (7-1-2) opposes Penn State (8-2) in the Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia. Clemson (8-2) meets Texas Christian (8-2) in the Bluebonnet classic at Houston. And Lenoir Rhyne (10-0) of North Carolina plays Texas A&I (11-1) in the NAIA Holiday bowl at St. Petersburg, Fla.

CBS will telecast both the Holiday attraction, which starts at 12:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time and the Bluebonnet, beginning at 3:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. The Liberty Bowl will be seen at 1 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on NBC.

The Liberty and Bluebonnet bowls are newcomers to the post-season events. The promoters of the games, hoping for financial successes and good weather, have lined up four top teams despite intense competition from the established bowls.

TCU was the nation's seventh ranking team in the final Associated Press poll. Alabama was listed 10th, Clemson 11th and Penn State 12th.

The Holiday bowl, sponsored by the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics, has been billed for the small college title. It matches the survivors of a pair of preliminary playoffs.

The Liberty bowl is expected to draw a crowd of 50,000 to Philadelphia Stadium. Both Alabama and Penn State are reported to be in fine physical shape and the game shapes up as a test of Alabama's strong defense against Penn State's productive offense, headed by Richie Lucas.

The Crimson Tide, of the Southeastern Conference, fourth best defensively this season, have allowed only 95 points in 10 games. The Nittany Lions, an Eastern independent, accumulated 255 points in their 10 games.

TCU, the co-champion of the Southwest Conference, rules an eight-point favorite to defeat Clemson, winner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Some 70,000 fans are expected at Rice Stadium.

Lenoir Rhyne eliminated Southern Connecticut 47-20 and Texas A&I ousted Hillsdale (Mich.) 20-0 two weeks ago to gain the NAIA finals. Lenoir Rhyne, placing an 11-game winning streak on the life, is a slight choice. A turnout of 10,000 is expected at Al Lang Field.

Philadelphia Coaches Pull Out Crying Towel

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - Basketball coaches, the psychological war is on.

The perennial crying towels got their first workout here Thursday. Now it's a battle down to the wire to see which coaches can outtry the others with dry eyes.

Take Duddy Moore of LaSalle, for example. Pity the poor man. His team is 5-0.

"There might be a poorer looking undefeated team in the nation than LaSalle today but it would have to be one that hasn't played yet," he laments.

And to top it off Duddy told a basketball writers' luncheon he "stayed up all Wednesday night trying to figure out what's wrong" after being "lucky" to beat Lafayette.

"We've been using three defenses right along," bemoaned Moore, "and we've shifted from good to bad to worse."

But save a little sympathy for Al Severance of Villanova. His Wildcats, too, are undefeated with five victories, including an impressive 68-56 triumph over arch rival North Carolina State.

"We're still not entirely satisfied with our defense," said Severance. "We held them (State) to 19 shots in the first half but they got 20 in the second half."

Next spoke Harry Litwack of Temple (5-1). He addressed his remarks to Severance.

"I don't know what you're hollering about defense for. Maybe we've been lousy on defense because we don't have the big, rugged boys to battle for rebounds."

St. Joseph's coach Jack Ramsay said the club's failure to contain Cincinnati on defense last week "has been the story of our season."

Scott Picked To Whip Paret

NEW YORK (AP) - Charley Scott is the No. 1 contender, winner of six straight, and anxious to get a title crack at welter-weight champion Don Jordan.

So tonight, the sleek, stiff-necked Philadelphia guns for his seventh in a row in a television (NBC 10 p.m. EST) 10-rounder with middleweight Benn (Kid) Paret of Cuba at Madison Square Garden.

Scott, 23, 148 pounds, is a 5-2 favorite to whip Paret, 22, and 154.

Jordan was unexpectedly flattened in the fourth round by Federico Thompson of Argentina in a non-title fight to Buenos Aires last week. Philadelphia promoter Herman Taylor has offered Jordan a $75,000 guarantee to risk his crown against Scott.

The champ may not have too much time to make up his mind, either. The NBA has given him until Jan. 15 to sign for a title defense.

On his record and rating, Scott deserves the shot. Unbeaten in 13 months, he has whipped, among others, Ike Logart, Ralph Dupas and Sugar Hart. He stopped Hart, then the top contender, in the ninth round last Oct. 19 and became top banana himself.

His record is 24-9, including 13 knockouts. Paret's record is 28-6-2 including eight kayos.

Paret is just the opponent but he could make it a lively show. The muscular Cuban shoots his punches in bursts of four and six at a clip. His punches look good but lack the power Scott fires in short, devastating left-right combinations.

Ed Fitzgerald To Work With Tribe Catchers

CLEVELAND (AP) - Foiled in his attempt to land a veteran catcher, Cleveland general manager Frank Lane has named Ed Fitzgerald as a player-coach to work with the team's young receivers.

Lane sought Boston catcher Sammy White but the Red Sox rejected the deal Thursday when the Indians insisted that outfielder Marty Keough be included. Cleveland was willing to give up John Romano, the 25-year-old catcher acquired recently from the Chicago White Sox.

Fitzgerald, 35, the team's third-string catcher, will work with Romano and Russ Nixon, 24, during spring training in an attempt to give them more polish in handling pitchers.

"Fitzgerald probably would be glad to do this on his own," said Lane, "but we figured he'd have more authority as a coach. There will be more money in it for him, too."

"Joe (Gordon) and I believe that if Fitz can help these kids we won't need Sammy White. Romano hit .388 against left-handed pitching, so maybe he and Nixon can alternate."

Bobcat Is Bagged By Local Hunters

A bobcat - a rarity in this neck of the woods - was bagged Thursday by three local men while hunting on the Clutter farm near Glasgow.

In the group were Orville McDole Jr. of Shadyside Ave., Smith Scott of Railroad St. and Chuck Reed of St. George St.

The bobcat, treed by the men's dogs, was wounded and then managed to hole up nearby after leaping from the tree. The hunters dug him out and delivered the final blow.

Soon after Ulysses S. Grant was graduated from West Point, he decided to resign from the Army because of the loneliness of the life. In Poison Incident

U.S. Cites Czech Consul

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP)—The U. S. Army charged today that the Czechoslovak vice consul at Salzburg, Austria, provided a Communist agent with the poison found in salt shakers at the cafeteria of Radio Free Europe in Munich.

"The Army counterintelligence investigation shows that Jaroslav Nemec, a vice consul at the Czech consulate in Salzburg, Austria, on Nov. 16 gave a Communist agent salt shakers containing atropine for placement in the RFE cafeteria in Munich," an official Army statement said.

"The agent was told that the shakers contained a 'mild laxative,'" the Army said.

"Clinical analysis, however, proved that they contained atropine in sufficient quantity to cause serious illness, the degree of which would depend upon the age and physical condition of the individual and the amount of 'salt consumed.'"

Disclosure of the plot against the private, American-financed station, which broadcasts anti-Communist propaganda, was made Wednesday by its European director, Erik Hazelhoff of Mount Kisco, N.Y.

He said he had notified U. S. and West German authorities after being tipped that the poison had been put in salt shakers at the station's cafeteria Nov. 21.

U. S. Army and West German officials at first denied they knew anything about the plot. But a spokesman later said the Army had been told about it.

Today's Army statement said the plot was discovered by counterintelligence agents during "normal security operations."

Hazelhoff said in his announcement that a "foreign Communist power" was behind the alleged poisoning but refused to identify the country. He said only that it was planned by a Communist diplomat stationed in Western Europe.

Anopine, the drug found in the salt shakers, is derived from the deadly nightshade plant. It is given in minute doses for certain forms of heart disturbances, asthma and intestinal colic. A dose of two-tenths of a gram causes death within 6 to 24 hours.

In Vienna, the Austrian protocol office said a Jaroslav Nemec is employed by the Czechoslovak consulate general at Salzburg as a minor official, without diplomatic status.

The Czechoslovak legation in Vienna termed the U. S. Army statement "gross provocation" and denied Czech officials in Austria were involved.

"Mr. Nemec is a consular officer of the Czechoslovak Consulate General at Salzburg. He is certainly not involved in the alleged poison attempt," a spokesman said.

"All we know about the case is what we read in the Austrian papers."

Democratic Committee Sets Jan. 22 To Talk Convention

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic National Committee will meet here Jan. 22 to discuss 1960 national convention and campaign plans.

While the meeting's agenda has yet to be decided, several state leaders have indicated they will fight National Chairman Paul M. Butler's proposal to penalize states behind in their campaign donations.

Some committeemen also have spoken up in favor of the Butler proposal which would assign convention seats and hotel rooms on the basis of state records of financial support of the National Committee in the 39 months up to April 1, 1960.

The Democrats have been having difficulties meeting current operating expenses at national headquarters while at the same time raising money to pay off a huge deficit from the 1956 campaign.

Another scrap that may materialize at the Jan. 22 meeting is a proposal which Illinois Committeeman Jacob M. Arvey has promised to put forward which would give the larger states great-

Referendum Proposal Due Action By Local 53

Local Union 53, Finishers, is scheduled to vote at a meeting Jan. 14 on a resolution asking a referendum of the trade on plans to erect a new headquarters building on Route 7 for the International Brotherhood of Operative Pottery.

The local announced plans for action on the resolution in a notice published Thursday in the Pottery Herald, official union newspaper.

If eight locals enact such resolutions, the IBOP will be required to schedule a vote of its entire membership on the building plan approved by the 1959 convention in Montreal.

Ohio Sales Tax Agents Due Hike On Commissions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson said today many of his sales tax agents will start receiving higher commissions early next year.

The new rate on stamp sales to retailers will be one per cent on the first $50,000 and 1/4 per cent beyond that total.

The current rate is one per cent to $20,000, 1/4 per cent between $20,000 and $100,000 and 1/8 per cent above that amount.

Ferguson estimated the change would increase commissions about $5,000 for each four-week pay period, starting the first week in January. Commissions paid then will be for stamp sales during the pay period ending Dec. 21. There are 13 pay periods annually.

But Ferguson said only about 50 of his 422 agents would benefit by the boost because of their volume sales. Many agents sell the stamps in connection with their business and their commissions are less than $100 a pay period, he explained.

The state treasurer said the change will apply only to his appointees. It will not affect county treasurers, whose one per cent commission on sale of stamps goes to their counties, or to clerks of court whose commissions also go to their counties from the tax on motor vehicle sales for which stamps are not issued.

Health Board To Meet

LISBON — The appropriation for 1960 will be up for approval, along with routine business, when the Columbiana County Board of Health meets Monday at 8 p. m. in the Health Department offices, according to Dr. C. S. Palmer, health commissioner.

Telephone Employees To Vote On New Pact

MARION, Ohio (AP)—About 1,400 employees of General Telephone Co. of Ohio will vote on ratification of a new one-year contract providing wage increases up to 14 cents an hour plus fringe benefits.

Agreement was reached between the company and the Communication Workers of America Thursday after 14 days of bargaining, and three days before the deadline. The contract, if ratified, becomes effective Dec. 20.

The 14-cent wage boost was granted plant craftsmen in the Georgetown area, according to R. C. Fletcher, company director of personnel. Other employees receive increases of 3 to 9 cents an hour.

To Run For Senate

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—Former Republican Lt. Gov. John W. Brown of Medina, now a state representative, will enter his party's primary next May seeking the nomination for state senator. Brown announced Thursday he will run in the 27th-29th Senatorial District which covers Medina, Lorain, Ashland and Richland counties. The 45-year-old Republican served two terms as lieutenant governor under Govs. Frank J. Lausche and C. William O'Neill.

Some people seem to feel that prescriptions are outrageously priced. The truth of the matter is this: Last year the average American bought about 3 prescriptions for a total cost of around $7.50. An average of less than $3.00 per prescription. Sure, some drugs cost a lot. So do television tubes—for the same reason. They're expensive to manufacture. New and improved production methods, however, bring prices down. Penicillin, for example, costs only a small fraction of what it did when it first came out. Your pharmacist has a professional knowledge of drugs and can tell you this. They are fairly priced. You get what you pay for. We are always pleased to serve you.
